3. Meaning of business

(1) In this Act, “business” -

- (a) means -
 - (i) any trade, commerce or manufacture, profession, vocation or occupation; or
 - (ii) any other activity in the nature of trade, commerce or manufacture, profession, vocation or occupation; and
- (b) includes any activity carried on by a person, whether or not for gains or profit, and which involves in part or in whole the supply of goods or services to other persons for a consideration.

(2) Anything done in connection with the termination or intended termination of a business is treated as being done in the course or furtherance of that business.

(3) Where in the case of a business carried on by a taxable person, goods forming part of the assets of the business are, under any power exercisable by another person, sold by the other in or towards satisfaction of a debt owed by the taxable person, they shall be deemed to be supplied by the taxable person in the course or furtherance of his business.

(4) The disposal of a business as a going concern, or of its assets or liabilities, whether or not in connection with its re-organisation or winding up, is a supply made in the course or furtherance of the business.

4. Meaning of supply

(1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, “supply” means -

- (a) in the case of goods, the transfer for a consideration of the right to dispose of the goods as the owner; or
- (b) in the case of services, the performance of services for a consideration.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of the Third Schedule and to any regulations made under subsection (4) -

- (a) “supply” in this Act includes all forms of supply, but not anything done otherwise than for a consideration;
- (b) anything which is not a supply of goods but is done for a consideration (including, if so done, the granting, assignment or surrender of any right) is a supply of services.

(3) The Third Schedule shall apply for determining what is, or is to be treated as, a supply of goods or a supply of services.

(4) Without prejudice to section 72(1)(b), the Minister may, by regulations, amend the Third Schedule to provide, with respect to any transaction, whether -

- (a) it is to be treated as a supply of goods and not as a supply of services;
- (b) it is to be treated as a supply of services and not as a supply of goods; or
- (c) it is to be treated as neither a supply of goods nor a supply of services.

(5) (a) A supply of goods incidental to the supply of services is part of the supply of the services.

(b) A supply of services incidental to the importation of goods is part of the importation of the goods.

(c) A supply of services incidental to the supply of goods is part of the supply of the goods.

(6) A supply of services made by a person in performing the duties of his office or employment is not a supply made by that person.

5. Time of supply

(1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, a supply of goods or services shall be deemed to take place -

- (a) at the time an invoice or a VAT invoice in respect of that supply is issued by the supplier; or
- (b) at the time payment for that supply is received by the supplier,

whichever is the earlier.

(2) Where services are supplied for a continuous period under any enactment or agreement which provides for periodic payments, the services are treated as successively supplied for successive parts of the period as determined by the enactment or agreement and each successive supply shall be deemed to take place -

- (a) at the time an invoice or a VAT invoice in respect of that supply is issued by the supplier; or
- (b) at the time payment for that supply is received by the supplier,

whichever is the earlier.

(3) Where a taxable supply is made -

- (a) under a hire purchase agreement, the supply shall be treated as a supply of goods and it shall be deemed to be supplied at the time the agreement is made; or
- (b) under a lease agreement, the supply shall be treated as a supply of services and it shall be deemed to be supplied -
 - (i) at the time an invoice or a VAT invoice in respect of that supply is issued by the supplier; or
 - (ii) at the time payment for that supply is received by the supplier, whichever is the earlier.

(4) Where any goods specified in Part II of the Seventh Schedule are supplied at the stage in the chain of distribution immediately before the retail stage, the time of supply of those goods shall, subject to subsection (1), be treated, for all intents and purposes, as if the supply at the retail stage has taken place. ^{47*}

(5) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, the Minister may, by regulations, make provision with respect to the time at which a supply is to be treated as taking place in cases where it is a supply of goods or services for a consideration, the whole or part of which, is payable periodically or from time to time, or at the end of any period.

6. Application of the Act ^{48 *}

(1) This Act shall bind the State.

(2) Where in any enactment or agreement made before or after the commencement of this Act, it is provided that notwithstanding any other enactment a statutory corporation or any other person shall be exempt from the payment of the whole or part of any tax, that provision shall not be construed as an exemption from the payment of VAT under this Act.

PART II - ADMINISTRATION7. [Commissioner for Value Added Tax] Deleted ^{49 *}8. Confidentiality

(1) Subject to subsection (2), every officer shall maintain the confidentiality of any return, assessment, document or other matter that comes to his knowledge or possession in the performance of his duties and functions under this Act and any regulations made thereunder.

(2) Except for the purposes of this Act, any other revenue law, the Prevention of Corruption Act 2002 or where so authorised to do so by the Minister, no officer shall communicate to any person any matter relating to this Act and any regulations made thereunder.^{50 *}

(3) Any officer who, without lawful excuse, contravenes this section shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 5,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years.

PART III - LIABILITY TO VALUE ADDED TAX9. Charge to value added tax

(1) VAT shall be charged on any supply of goods or services made in Mauritius, where it is a taxable supply made by a taxable person in the course or furtherance of any business carried on by him.

(2) VAT on any taxable supply is a liability of the person making the supply and becomes due at the time of supply.

(3) Where food or drink, cooked or prepared in any manner, is supplied, such food or drink shall, notwithstanding the other provisions of this Act, be deemed to be a taxable supply.

(4) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, every person who -

(a) imports goods, other than goods specified in the First Schedule, shall pay a value added tax on those goods; or

- (b) being a taxable person, makes taxable supplies, shall, after the end of the taxable period in which those supplies are made, pay to the Director-General, within such time as may be prescribed, a value added tax on those supplies. ^{51*}

(5) VAT on the importation of goods shall be charged, levied and payable as if it were customs duty, excise duty, MID levy, CO₂ levy or levy on energy consumption and as if all goods imported into Mauritius are dutiable and liable to customs duty, excise duty, MID levy, CO₂ levy or levy on energy consumption. ^{52*}

(6) Every taxable person shall be liable to pay to the Director-General VAT on all his taxable supplies as from the date he is required to be registered as a registered person under this Act. ^{53*}

(7) The liability under the Act of a société, club, association, or similar organisation, as a taxable person shall not be affected by any change in its associateship or membership, as the case may be.

(8) No person shall charge VAT on any supplies of goods or services he makes unless he is a registered person at the time the supplies are made.

(9) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, where -

- (a) any goods specified in Part II of the Seventh Schedule; or
- (b) prepaid cards in respect of any services, are supplied at any stage in the chain of distribution immediately before the retail stage, the supply shall be deemed to have been made at the retail stage and VAT on such supply shall be charged on such value as includes the retail margin. ^{54*}

10. Rate of VAT

(1) Subject to section 51, VAT shall be charged at the rate specified in the Fourth Schedule and shall be charged - ^{55*}

- (a) on any taxable supply by reference to the value of the supply as determined under section 12; and
- (b) on the importation of any goods, other than those specified in the First Schedule, by reference to the value of the goods as determined under section 13.

(2) Notwithstanding any other enactment or agreement and subject to subsections (3) and (4), where the rate of tax is varied before the supply of any goods or services takes place pursuant to section 5, the rate of tax on the supply of those goods or services shall be varied as from the date of the variation. ^{56*}

(3) Where, in the course of the execution of a contract for the supply of any goods or services, the rate of tax is varied, the rate of tax on the supply of those goods or services shall be varied with respect to the remaining part of the contract as from the date of the variation.^{57*}

(4) Where, in respect of a continuous supply of services, invoices are issued at regular intervals and the rate of tax is varied, the rate of tax on the supply of those services shall be varied as from the date of the variation.^{58*}

11. Zero-rating

(1) Where a taxable person supplies goods or services and the supply is zero-rated -

- (a) no VAT shall be charged on the supply; but
- (b) it shall in all respects be treated as a taxable supply, and accordingly the rate at which VAT is treated as charged on the supply shall be nil.

(2) A supply of goods or services is zero-rated by virtue of this section if the goods or services are of a description specified in the Fifth Schedule.

12. Value of taxable supplies

(1) For the purposes of this Act, the value of any taxable supply made by a taxable person shall, subject to the other provisions of this Act, be determined in accordance with the provisions of this section and shall be expressed in Mauritius currency^{59*}.

(2) If the supply is for a consideration in money, its value shall be taken to be such amount as, with the addition of the VAT chargeable, is equal to the consideration or such other amount as the Director-General may determine.^{60*}

(3) If the supply is for a consideration not consisting or not wholly consisting of money, the value of the supply shall be taken to be the open market value of the supply or such other amount as the Director-General may determine.^{61*}

(4) Where a taxable supply is not the only matter to which a consideration in money relates, the supply shall be deemed to be for such part of the consideration as is properly attributable to it.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (3), the open market value of a supply of goods or services shall be taken to be the amount that would fall to be taken as its value under subsection (2) if the supply were for such consideration in money as would be payable by a person who has no relationship with any person which would affect that consideration.

(6) Where a supply of any of the goods specified in Part I of the Seventh Schedule is made by a registered person -^{62*}

- (a) at the stage in the chain of distribution immediately before the stage of retail, VAT shall be calculated on such value of the supply as excludes the retail margin.

- (b) at the stage of retail, VAT shall be calculated on the value of the supply as specified in paragraph (a).

(7) Where a supply of any of the goods specified in Part II of the Seventh Schedule is made by a registered person - ^{63*}

- (a) at the stage in the chain of distribution immediately before the stage of retail, VAT shall be calculated on such value of the supply as includes the retail margin.
- (b) at the stage of retail, VAT shall be calculated on the value of the supply as specified in paragraph (a)

13. Value of imported goods

The value shall, in respect of goods imported by any person, be the sum of –

- (a) the customs value of the goods;
- (b) the customs duty and excise duty payable on the goods;
- (c) the MID levy; ^{64 *}
- (d) the CO₂ levy; and ^{65 *}
- (e) the levy on energy consumption. ^{66 *}

14. Reverse charge on supply of services received from abroad

(1) Where a person who does not belong in Mauritius makes a taxable supply of services which are performed or utilised in Mauritius, to a registered person, then all the same consequences shall follow under this Act as if the registered person had himself supplied the services in Mauritius and that supply were a taxable supply. ^{67*}

(2) Where a supply of services which is treated as made by a registered person under subsection (1), then the provisions of section 21 shall apply and the registered person may claim the tax on the supply of those services as input tax.

(3) The invoice or other documentation from the person making the supply shall be treated as a VAT invoice.

(4) The value of the supply under this section shall be the amount paid or payable for the services.

(5) For the purposes of this section, a person does not belong in Mauritius if that person -

- (a) has no permanent establishment in Mauritius for the carrying on of his business; or
- (b) has his place of abode outside Mauritius.

PART IV - REGISTRATION15. Compulsory registration

- (1) Subject to the other provisions of this section, every person -
- (a) who, in the course or furtherance of his business, makes taxable supplies; and
 - (b) whose turnover of taxable supplies exceeds or is likely to exceed the amount, specified in the Sixth Schedule, ^{68*}

shall apply to the Director-General, in such form and in such manner as may be approved by him, for compulsory registration as a registered person under the Act. ^{69*}

- (2) (a) Notwithstanding section 16, every person engaged in – ^{70*}
- (i) any business or profession specified in Part I of the Tenth Schedule and whose turnover of taxable supplies does not exceed or is not likely to exceed the amount specified in the Sixth Schedule; or ⁷¹
 - (ii) any business specified in Part II of the Tenth Schedule, irrespective of his turnover of taxable supplies, shall apply to the Director-General, in such form and in such manner as may be approved by him, for compulsory registration as a registered person under the Act.

(b) Paragraph (a) (i) shall not apply to a person holding an office or employment, unless the person, otherwise than by virtue of any enactment, is also engaged, in addition to his office or employment, in any business or profession specified in Part I of the Tenth schedule.

(2A)⁷² *Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Act, the registration of a person engaged in the business specified in item 1 of Part II of the Tenth Schedule shall be in respect of –

- (a) the banking services referred to -
 - (i) in subparagraph (A), (B) and (C) of item 50(a)(ii) of the First Schedule;
 - (ii) in item 6(b)(ii) of the Fifth Schedule; and
 - (b) his other taxable supplies, irrespective of the amount of his turnover.
- (3) Where the turnover of a person is made up exclusively of -
- (a) zero-rated supplies; or
 - (b) zero-rated supplies and exempt supplies, that person shall not be bound to apply for registration under this section.^{73 *}

(4) Where the Director-General is satisfied that the applicant is required to be registered, he shall register the applicant as a registered person under the Act.^{74*}

- (5) Where the Director-General is satisfied that -
- (a) a person, in the course or furtherance of his business, makes taxable supplies;
 - (b) the taxable supplies made by certain other persons should properly be regarded as those made by that person;
 - (c) upon the taxable supplies referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) being together taken into account, that person would be liable to be registered; and
 - (d) the main reason or one of the main reasons for that person carrying on business in the way he does is the avoidance of a liability to be registered, the Director-General may issue a direction to that person directing that the persons named therein shall be treated as a single taxable person and that single taxable person shall be liable to be registered under this section.

15A. Penalty for failure to apply for compulsory registration

Any taxable person who does not apply for compulsory registration under section 15 shall be liable to pay to the Director-General a penalty of 5,000 rupees for every month or part of the month from the taxable period in respect of which he is liable to be registered as a registered person up to the month immediately preceding the month in which the application for registration is submitted, provided that the total penalty payable shall not exceed 50,000 rupees.^{75*}

16. Voluntary registration

(1) Notwithstanding section 15, any person who, in the course or furtherance of his business, makes taxable supplies may apply to the Director-General, in such form and in such manner as may be approved by him, for voluntary registration as a registered person under the Act.^{76*}

- (2) Where the applicant satisfies the Director-General that -
- (a) he keeps and maintains a proper record of his business; and^{77*}
 - (b) repealed^{78*}
 - (c) he has been discharging his obligations under the revenue laws, the Director-General may register the applicant as a registered person under the Act.^{79*}

17. Certificate of registration

(1) Where a person has been registered under section 15 or 16, the Director-General shall allocate to that person a VAT Registration Number and issue to him a certificate of registration in a form approved by the Director-General on such terms and conditions as he thinks fit.

(2) The Director-General shall, in the certificate of registration issued to a person under subsection (1), specify the VAT Registration Number allocated to that person.^{80*}

18. Cancellation of registration

(1) Where the Director-General is satisfied that a registered person should cease to be registered under the Act, he may, by notice in writing, require the registered person, within 14 days of the date of the notice, to show cause why he should not cease to be registered and if the Director-General is satisfied that, having regard to all circumstances of the case, it is expedient to do so, he may cancel the registration with effect from such date as the Director-General may determine and give notice thereof to the person.^{81*}

(2) Where the registration of a registered person is cancelled under subsection (1), the person shall -

- (a) cease to hold himself out to be a registered person;
- (b) submit a return and pay all tax due including the tax due on any goods forming part of the assets of the business other than those specified in section 21(2)(b); and^{82*}
- (c) immediately return to the Director-General his certificate of registration and all its copies.^{83*}

- (g) goods and services used by banks holding a banking licence under the Banking Act 2004 for providing banking services other than to non-residents and corporations holding a Global Business Licence under the Financial Services Development Act 2001; ^{100*}
- (ga) banking services provided by banks holding a banking licence under the Banking Act 2004 other than to non-residents and corporations holding a Global Business Licence under the Financial services Development Act 2001; and ^{101*}
- (h) goods and services used by persons for the purpose of providing services specified in item 4 of Part II of the Tenth Schedule, or services specified in item 4 of Part II of the Tenth Schedule. ^{102*}
- (3)
 - (a) Where goods or services are used to make a taxable supply, the credit in respect of those goods or services shall be allowed in full; ^{103*}
 - (b) Subject to paragraphs (c) and (d) where goods or services are used to make both taxable supplies and exempt supplies, the credit in respect of those goods or services shall be allowed in the proportion of the value of taxable supplies to total turnover on the basis of – ^{104*}
 - (i) in the case of a new business, the estimated figures for the current accounting year; or
 - (ii) in any other case, the actual figures for the previous accounting year.
 - (c) The amount of input tax taken in accordance with paragraph (b) ^{105*} shall be adjusted by the person at the end of his accounting year and an adjustment shall be made by him in his return for the taxable period immediately following the end of that accounting year.
 - (d) Where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Director-General that the apportionment in accordance with paragraph (b) is, having regard to the nature of the business, not fair and reasonable, the Director-General may approve such alternative basis of apportionment as he considers appropriate in the circumstances, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed. ^{106*}

(4) The amount of any input tax or output tax shall be adjusted to take into account any debit note or credit note or a bad debt.

(5) No credit for input tax shall be allowed unless –

- (a) VAT invoices issued by suppliers legally authorised to charge VAT; or
- (b) Customs import declarations, either electronic or otherwise, in support of the credit, are made available to the Director-General for examination on demand. ^{107*}

(6) Where credit for any input tax has not been taken in the taxable period in which it ought to have been taken, a registered person may take such credit within a period of 36 months of the date the input tax ought to have been taken. ^{108*}

(7) (a) Where, in respect of a building or part of a building (including extension and renovation) forming part of the fixed assets of a registered person, a credit for input tax has been taken, and before the end of the nineteenth year following the year in which it was acquired - ^{109*}

- (i) that building or part of that building is sold or otherwise transferred; ^{110*}
- (ii) the person transfers his business or ceases to carry on business; or
- (iii) the Director-General is satisfied that the person should cease to be registered under the Act, the registered person shall, subject to subsection (7A), be liable to pay back to the Director-General, in respect of the remaining portion of that period, the proportionate amount of the credit allowed.

(b) The registered person shall treat the proportionate amount referred to in paragraph (a) as output tax in his return for the taxable period in which -

- (i) the building or part of the building is sold or otherwise transferred; ^{111*}
- (ii) he transfers his business or ceases to carry on business; or
- (iii) his registration as a registered person is cancelled pursuant to paragraph (a)(iii), whichever is the earliest. ^{112*}

(7A) (a) Where the building or part of a building referred to in subsection (7)(a) in respect of which a credit for input tax has been taken is sold or otherwise transferred to a registered person, before the end of the nineteenth year following the year in which it was acquired, the seller or transferor shall be deemed to have made a taxable supply and shall charge VAT on that supply in accordance with paragraph (b).

- (b) The VAT chargeable under paragraph (a) shall be the credit for input tax taken by the seller or transferor in his VAT return in respect of the building or part of the building, multiplied by the factor referred to in paragraph (c).
- (c) The factor shall be the proportion which the period between the date of sale or transfer and the expiry of the 20 year period from the date of acquisition bears to the 20 year period.^{113 *}

(8) For the purposes of determining the proportion of the value of taxable supplies to total turnover under subsection (3) (b), the value of taxable supplies shall exclude the value of capital goods.^{114*}

(9) Notwithstanding subsection (5), but subject to subsection (10), where a person is registered for VAT under section 15, he may, subject to subsection (2), take credit in his first VAT return of the VAT paid or payable on his trading stocks and capital goods, being plant, machinery or equipment of a capital nature, held on the date immediately preceding the date of his registration.^{115*}

(10) No credit shall be allowed under subsection (9) unless -

- (a) the registered person submits to the Director-General at the time of submission of his first VAT return, an inventory duly certified by a qualified auditor, of -
 - (i) his trading stocks; and
 - (ii) his capital goods, being plant, machinery or equipment of a capital nature, on the date immediately preceding the date of his registration;
- (b) the goods forming part of his trading stocks and the capital goods were acquired within a period not exceeding 3 months immediately preceding the date of his registration;
- (c) the VAT paid or payable is substantiated by receipts or invoices issued by VAT registered persons or by customs import declarations; and
- (d) credit for input tax in respect of the goods has not been taken under section 23.

22. Return and payment of tax

(1) Every registered person shall, after the end of every taxable period, within such time as may be prescribed, submit to the Director-General in respect of that period a return, in such manner and in such form as may be approved by the Director-General, specifying -

- (a) the amount of output tax payable;
- (b) the amount of input tax allowable;
- (c) the value of all taxable supplies made by him;
- (d) the value of goods imported and the value of all taxable supplies made to him;
- (e) the amount of solidarity levy under section 53B; and ^{116*}
- (ea) the amount of levy under section 53J; and ^{117*}
- (f) such other particulars as may be required in the form of the return. ^{118*}

(1A) Where the annual turnover of taxable supplies does not exceed the amount specified in the Second Schedule, a registered person may, notwithstanding subsection (1), by irrevocable notice in writing to the Director-General, elect the taxable period in relation to him be a period of a month or part of a month. ^{119*}

(1B) Where a registered person has made an election under subsection (1A), he shall submit a return in accordance with this section as from the end of the quarter in which the election is made. ^{120*}

(1C) Where a registered person submits his return electronically, he shall also submit electronically a summary of the value of supplies made to any person, other than a final consumer, in such format as may be determined by the Director-General. ^{121*}

(2) Where a registered person submits a return under subsection (1) or (1B) and- ^{122*}

- (a) the output tax exceeds the input tax, the difference representing the amount of tax payable shall be paid to the Director-General at the time the return is submitted; or
- (b) the input tax exceeds the output tax which would have been payable if the credit has not been taken, the excess amount shall, subject to section 24, be retained to be carried forward onto the return for the following taxable period for the payment of any VAT that is for the time being payable or may become payable by the registered person.

(3) Where a registered person does not make any supply of goods or services and does not receive any goods or services, he shall submit a nil return.

23. Tax liability prior to date of registration

(1) Where a registered person ought to have been registered on a day prior to the date of his registration, he shall, not later than 30 days after the date of his registration - ^{123*}

- (a) submit a statement, in a form approved by the Director-General, giving the information and particulars specified in section 22 in respect of the taxable periods commencing on the date the person was required to be registered and ending on the date immediately preceding the date of his registration, provided that such periods do not exceed 5 years; and ^{124 *}
 - (b) at the same time, pay any tax due in accordance with the statement together with any interest under section 27A. ^{125*}
- (2) Notwithstanding section 21(5)(a), any registered person may, in the statement under subsection (1), take as a credit against his output tax for the taxable period, the amount of input tax allowable to him during that period provided that -
- (a) the amount of tax is duly supported by receipts or invoices issued by VAT registered persons and the amount of VAT is separately shown thereon; and
 - (b) credit has not been taken under section 21(9).^{126 *}

24. Repayment of tax

(1) Where a registered person submits a return under section 22 and the excess amount includes input tax amounting to more than 100,000 rupees or such other amount as may be prescribed, on capital goods being building or structure (including extension and renovation), plant, machinery or equipment, of a capital nature, the registered person may, in that return, make a claim to the Director-General for a repayment of the amount of input tax allowable in respect of those capital goods. ^{127*}

(1A) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Director- General may, on receipt of a claim under that subsection – ^{128 *}

- (a) repay the whole or part of the excess amount; or
- (b) retain the excess amount to be carried forward onto the return for the following taxable period.

(2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), where, in respect of a taxable period, a return shows an excess amount, the registered person may, in that return, make a claim to the Director-General for repayment, in addition to any amount repayable under subsection (1), of that part of the excess amount which corresponds to the proportion of the value of zero-rated supplies to the total value of taxable supplies in that taxable period. ^{129*}

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the excess amount in a return shall not include any input tax for capital goods, whether repayable under subsection (1) or not.

- (4) (a) Where a return shows an excess amount and the registered person is mainly engaged in making zero-rated supplies, he may, in that return, make a claim to the Director-General for a repayment of the whole or part of the excess amount. ^{130*}

- (aa) Where a registered person proves to the satisfaction of the Director-General that any excess amount in his VAT return is unlikely to be set off against subsequent output tax, the Director-General may allow, in such circumstances as may be prescribed, the repayment of the whole or part of the excess amount. ^{131*}
- (b) On receipt of a claim under paragraphs (a) and (aa), the Director-General may - ^{132*}
- (i) repay the whole or part of the excess amount; or
 - (ii) retain the excess amount to be carried forward onto the return for the following taxable period.

(5) Any claim for repayment under this section shall be made in such manner and in such form as may be approved by the Director-General and shall be submitted together with the return.

(6) Where a claim for repayment is made under this section, the amount claimed shall not be carried forward onto the return for the following taxable period and the Director-General may, on being satisfied that the registered person is entitled to the repayment, proceed to make the repayment.

(7) Subject to subsection (7A) or (7B), a repayment under this section shall be made within 45 days of the date of receipt by the Director-General of the return and the claim referred to in subsection (5).^{133 *}

(7A) Where a claim for repayment in respect of capital goods being fittings, equipment and furniture acquired by a VAT registered person for the purpose of renovation works of an amount of at least 10 million rupees in a shop, restaurant or other retail outlet, other than a supermarket or hypermarket, as confirmed by the Board of Investment, reaches the Director-General on or before 31 December 2014, the repayment shall, subject to subsection (7B), be made within 7 days of the date of receipt by the Director-General of the return and the claim referred to in subsection (5). ^{134 *}

(7B) Where the Director-General requests a registered person to submit invoices, documents or information in respect of a claim for repayment under this section, the time limit for the repayment referred to in subsection (7) or (7A) shall run as from the date of submission of all invoices, documents and information requested.^{135*}

(8) Where the repayment is made after the period specified in subsection (7), (7A) or (7B), the repayment shall carry interest free of income tax, at the prevailing Repo rate determined by the Bank of Mauritius.^{136 *}

(9) Where in respect of a claim for repayment under this section, it is found that an amount has been overclaimed, the registered person shall, subject to subsection (10), be liable to pay to the Director-General a penalty representing 20 per cent of the amount overclaimed provided that the penalty shall not exceed 200,000 rupees. ^{137*}

(10) Subsection (9) shall not apply where the amount of penalty does not exceed 250 rupees. ^{138*}

(11) Subject to subsection (12), the penalty under subsection (9) shall be payable to the Director-General within 28 days of the date of the notification for payment of the penalty.^{139*}

(12) Any penalty payable under subsection (9) shall be applied and set off against any amount of tax which is for the time being repayable to the registered person.^{140*}

25. Change in taxable period

(1) Where the annual turnover of taxable supplies of a registered person whose taxable period is a quarter exceeds the amount specified in the Second Schedule, he shall -

- (a) within 15 days of the date of the closing of his annual accounts, notify the Director-General of that fact in writing; and ^{141*}
- (b) change his taxable period from a quarter to a month as from the month immediately following that quarter.

(2) Where the annual turnover of taxable supplies of a registered person whose taxable period is a month does not exceed the amount specified in the Second Schedule, he may -

- (a) within 15 days of the date of the closing of his annual accounts, notify the Director-General of that fact in writing; and ^{142*}
- (b) change his taxable period from a month to a quarter as from the quarter immediately following that month.

(3) Where a registered person changes his taxable period under subsection (1) or (2), he shall submit the return under section 22 in accordance with his new taxable period.

26. Penalty for non-submission of return by due date

(1) Subject to subsection (2), where in respect of a taxable period, a registered person fails to submit a return on or before the last day on which the return is required to be submitted, he shall be liable to pay to the Director-General, in addition to any tax which may be payable, a penalty of 2,000 rupees for every month or part of the month until the return for that taxable period is submitted, provided that the total penalty payable shall not exceed 20,000 rupees. - ^{143*}

(2) Where a registered person is a small enterprise, the maximum penalty payable under subsection (1) shall not exceed 5,000 rupees.^{144*}

26A. Penalty for failure to join electronic system ^{145*}

Any registered person who is required under regulations made under the Act to submit his return and make any payment of tax due electronically but fails to join the electronic system, after written notice being given to him by the Director-General, shall be liable to pay to the Director-General on his failure within a period of 7 days from the date of the notice to justify the failure to join the system, a penalty of 5,000 rupees, for every month or part of the month from the taxable period specified in the notice, up to the taxable period immediately preceding the taxable period in respect of which he submits his return, and to make any payment of tax due electronically, provided that the total penalty payable shall not exceed 50,000 rupees.

27. Penalty for late payment of tax ^{146*}

(1) Subject to subsection (3), where a taxable person fails to pay any tax due on or before the last day on which it is payable under section 21(7), 22, 23, 37, 39 or 67, he shall be liable to pay to the Director-General, in addition to the tax and any penalty under sections 15A, 24(9), 26(1), 26A and 37A, a penalty of 5 per cent of the tax.

(2) The penalty under the subsection (1) shall apply to the tax excluding any penalty under sections 15A, 24(9), 26(1), 26A and 37A and any interest under section 27A.^{147*}

(3) Where the person referred to in subsection (1) is a small enterprise and it fails to pay any tax due on or before the last day on which it is payable under section 21(7), 22, 23, 27E(3) and (10), 37, 39 or 67, the penalty shall be 2 per cent of the tax.

(4) The penalty under subsection (3) shall apply to the tax excluding any penalty under section 15A, 24(9), 26(2), 26A or 37A and any interest under section 27A.

27A. Interest on tax unpaid or amount repaid or refunded in excess ^{148*}

(1) Interest at the rate of one per cent per month or part of the month shall be paid to the Director-General on -

- (a) any tax unpaid under section 9 or 21(7) from the date the tax remained unpaid to the date of payment;
- (b) any amount claimed by the Director-General in respect of tax repaid in excess and on any amount paid thereon as interest under section 24 from the date of the repayment up to the date of payment of the amount claimed; or
- (c) on any amount claimed by the Director-General under section 67 in respect of tax refunded, exempted or reduced erroneously from the date of the erroneous refund, exemption or reduction to -
 - (i) the date specified in the notice under section 67; and
 - (ii) in the case of non-payment by the date specified in the notice under section 67, from that date to the date of payment of the amount claimed.

(2) The interest under subsection (1) shall not apply to any penalty under section 15A, 24(9), 26, 26A, 27 or 37A.

PART VIA – PUBLIC SECTOR AGENCY TO DEDUCT
AN AMOUNT FROM VAT¹⁴⁹ ***

27B. Interpretation of Part VIA

In this Part –

“public sector agency” includes a Ministry, a Government department, a local authority, a statutory body and the Rodrigues Regional Assembly;

27C. Obligation of public sector agency

(1) Where a public sector agency makes a payment to a registered person, in respect of goods and services specified in the first column of the Thirteenth Schedule, it shall, at the time of payment, deduct from the amount of VAT chargeable on the goods and services an amount representing the appropriate rate of deduction specified in the second column of that Schedule.

(2) Where an amount is deducted under subsection (1), the amount so deducted shall be –

- (a) considered to have been paid by the registered person as VAT in the month in which the deduction is made;
- (b) taken into account by the registered person in his return in respect of the taxable period in which the amount is deducted.

(3) Every public sector agency which deducts an amount under subsection (1) shall, not later than 20 days from the end of the month in which the deduction is made, remit to the Director-General the amount so deducted, in such form and manner as the Director-General may determine.

(4) Where a public sector agency fails to comply with subsection (3), it shall be liable to pay, in addition to the amount deducted –

- (a) a penalty representing 5 per cent of the unpaid amount deducted; and
- (b) interest at the rate of 0.5 per cent per month or part of the month during which the amount deducted remains unpaid.

PART VIB – VAT RELATING TO SMALL ENTERPRISE^{150*}

27D. Interpretation of Part VIB

In this Part –

“accounting year” means –

- (a) in the case of a company, a period of 12 months ending on the date of the end of its accounting period;

* Please refer to endnotes at Appendix

(b) in any other case, a period of 12 months ending on 30 June;

“company” has the same meaning as in the Income Tax Act.

27E. VAT annual accounting system

(1) Subject to this section, a small enterprise may apply to the Director-General to operate the VAT annual accounting system on –

- (a) an accrual basis; or
- (b) a cash basis.

(2) Where a VAT registered person has applied for its net income from business to be calculated in accordance with Sub-part B of Part VIII of the Income Tax Act, he shall be considered to have applied to operate the VAT annual accounting system on a cash basis.

(3) A small enterprise which operates the VAT annual accounting system shall –

- (a) comply with such terms and conditions as the Director-General may approve;
- (b) within such time as may be prescribed, after the end of each of the first 3 calendar quarters in its accounting year, submit to the Director-General, a simplified VAT statement in such form and manner as the Director-General may approve; and
- (c) pay any VAT payable in accordance with subsection (4) or (5).

(4) The VAT payable pursuant to subsection (3)(b) shall be –

- (a) in the case of a VAT registered person whose annual total turnover does not exceed 10 million rupees at the commencement of this section, 25 per cent of the amount of VAT payable in respect of the preceding accounting year, after adding back any allowable input VAT in respect of capital goods in that year;
- (b) in the case of a small enterprise which registers for VAT at the commencement of this section, 25 per cent of the estimated VAT payable for the accounting year, after adding back any input VAT in respect of capital goods which the small enterprise intends to acquire in the first accounting year after its VAT registration.

(5) Where a small enterprise has in the relevant part of the first 3 quarters of an accounting year been supplied with capital goods and the input tax in respect thereof exceeds 50,000 rupees, the small enterprise may deduct from the VAT payable in accordance with subsection (4) the allowable input tax in respect of the capital goods.

(6) Where the computation referred to in subsection (5) shows an excess of input tax over VAT payable, the balance may be claimed as a repayment.

(7) Where the annual VAT return for an accounting year is not due before the due date for the submission of the simplified VAT statement referred to in subsection (3)(b) at the end of the first quarter in the succeeding accounting year, the basis for the computation of the VAT payable or claim for repayment for the statement in the succeeding accounting year shall be the accounting year immediately preceding the accounting year for which the VAT return is not due.

(8) A small enterprise which operates the annual VAT accounting system shall, within such time as may be prescribed, after the end of every accounting year, submit to the Director-General, a VAT return, in respect of that accounting year, in such form and manner as the Director-General may approve, specifying such particulars as may be required in the return.

(9) Where a small enterprise submits a return under subsection (8), the balance of output tax over input tax shall be adjusted by any tax payable or claimed as repayment in the VAT statements submitted in respect of the quarters ending in the accounting year.

(10) Where the adjusted balance under subsection (9) shows –

- (a) an amount of VAT payable, that amount shall be paid within such time as may be prescribed;
- (b) excess VAT, the balance shall, subject to subsection (11), be carried forward onto the return for the following accounting year.

(11) Where excess VAT shown by the adjusted balance includes input tax amounting to more than 50,000 rupees in respect of capital goods, the small enterprise may make a claim for repayment of the amount of input tax allowable in respect of capital goods.

(12) Where a VAT registered person makes a claim for repayment pursuant to subsection (6) or (11), the Director-General shall, on being satisfied with the claim, effect the repayment to the VAT registered person within 45 days of the date of receipt of the claim or the documents requested in support of the claim, whichever is the later.

(13) Where the application of a small enterprise to operate the VAT annual accounting system on a cash basis has been approved, it shall –

- (a) be considered to have made a supply in the accounting year in which the payment for the supply is received;
- (b) be considered to have received a supply in the accounting year in which payment for that supply is made;
- (c) subject to section 21, be entitled to take credit for input tax in respect of taxable supplies for which payment has been made;
- (d) be entitled to make a claim for repayment of VAT on submission of his statement or return, provided the excess includes VAT paid exceeding 50,000 rupees in respect of capital goods.

27F. Records

A small enterprise shall keep records in such form and manner as the Director-General may approve.

27G. Change in accounting system

Where a small enterprise intends to change its VAT accounting system, it shall, by written notice, inform the Director-General accordingly and shall comply with such conditions as the Director-General may determine.

PART VII - POWERS OF DIRECTOR-GENERAL ^{151*}28. Power to require information

(1) Subject to section 33, the Director-General may, by notice in writing, require any person to furnish to him, within such time as may be specified in the notice, information and particulars relating to -

- (a) the supply of any goods or services made to the person by any other person;
- (b) the supply of any goods or services made by the person to any other person;
- (c) contracts for the supply of any goods or services;
- (d) the amount owed by the person to any other person; and
- (e) such other transactions, which the Director-General considers necessary or relevant for the purposes of this Act and which may be in the possession or custody, or under the control, of that person.

(2) Where a notice under subsection (1) is issued to a person, that person shall comply with the requirements of that notice.

28A. Act or thing in respect of period before 3 years preceding last day of taxable period ^{152 *}

(1) Notwithstanding this Act, the Director-General shall, in any taxable period, in relation to the tax liability of a person, not –

- (a) require any information, statement or return;
- (b) make any assessment or claim, under this Act in respect of a period before 3 years preceding the last day of the taxable period, unless the Director-General applies ex parte for and obtains the authorisation of the Independent Tax Panel under the Mauritius Revenue Authority Act.

(2) An authorisation under subsection (1) shall be granted where the Director-General establishes to the satisfaction of the Independent Tax Panel that there is prima facie evidence of fraud.

(3) In an application under subsection (1), the Director-General shall specify the period in respect of which he proposes to do the act or thing referred to in subsection (1).

29. Obligation to furnish information

(1) Every person, when so required by the Director-General shall, for the purposes of this Act, within the time fixed by the Director-General, give orally or in writing, as may be required, all such information as may be demanded of him by the Director-General for the purpose of enabling the Director-General to ascertain his tax liability, make an assessment or collect tax. ^{153*}

(2) Subject to section 33, any person, when so required by notice in writing, shall, for the purposes of this Act, furnish to the Director-General, within the time specified in the notice -

- (a) a certified copy of the profit and loss account and balance sheet or such other statement of account as may be required, duly audited by a qualified auditor;
- (b) details of transactions in all the bank accounts of the person, his spouse and minor children; and
- (c) a certified statement of all assets and liabilities of the person, his spouse and minor children.

30. Use of computer system

(1) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Act and subject to section 8D of the Unified Revenue Act 1983, the Director-General may authorise - ^{154*}

- (a) an application for registration under Part IV;
- (b) a return under section 22 or a statement under section 23;
- (c) any payment or repayment of tax under the Act; or
- (d) any act or thing which is required to be done under the Act, to be made, submitted or done electronically through such computer system as may be approved by him.

(2) With effect from such date as may be notified in the Gazette, the Director-General may direct that any matter, act or thing referred to in subsection (1) shall be made, submitted or done electronically or otherwise.

(3) Any certificate of registration under section 17, any assessment of tax under section 37, or any act or thing which is required to be done by the Director-General under the Act, may be issued, made or done electronically through computer or other mechanical or electronic device.

(4) A person who submits a return and pays tax in the manner specified in subsection (1) shall continue to submit returns and pay tax in that manner unless otherwise authorised by the Director-General. ^{155*}

(5) Where, immediately before the commencement of this section, a person has been submitting a return and has been paying tax electronically, the computer system of that person shall be deemed to have been approved by the Director-General for the purposes of subsection (1). ^{156*}

31. Production of books and records

The Director-General may, for the purposes of ascertaining the tax liability of any person, require that person - ^{157*}

- (a) to produce for -
 - (i) examination, either at the business premises of that person or at the Office of the Director-General, books, records, copies of VAT invoices, contracts for the supply of goods or services, bank statements, or other documents, whether electronically or otherwise, which the Director-General considers necessary and which may be in the possession or custody or under the control of that person; ^{158*}
 - (ii) retention, for such period as the Director-General considers necessary, any record or document specified in subparagraph (i) and for taking copies of or extracts therefrom;
- (b) to call, either at the business premises of the person or at the Office of the Director-General, for the purpose of being examined in respect of any transaction or matter relating to the tax liability of that person.

32. Power to inspect books, records and goods

(1) Subject to subsection (3), the Director-General or any officer authorised by him in writing may, for the purposes of this Act, at all reasonable times, enter any business premises or place where any business is carried on or anything is done in connection with the business and - ^{159*}

- (a) may require the person carrying on the business or any person on those premises or in that place who is employed by the person carrying on the business to produce any books, records, copies of VAT invoice, balance sheet, stock sheet, contracts for the supply of goods or services, bank statements or other documents relating to the business, whether these are recorded electronically or otherwise, and may remove and retain any such records or other documents, for such period as may be considered reasonable for their examination or inspection; ^{160*}

- (b) may examine any such records or other documents and take copies of or extracts therefrom;
- (c) may inspect any goods;
- (d) may require the person -
 - (i) to produce any goods for inspection; or
 - (ii) to carry out a cash count; and
- (e) may require the person carrying on the business or any person on those premises or in that place who is employed by the person carrying on the business to give to the Director-General or the authorised officer all reasonable assistance and to answer all proper questions either orally or in writing. ^{161*}

(2) For the purposes of this Act, the Director-General may, at any time, cause a physical stocktaking of the goods of a registered person to be carried out.

(3) Subsection (1) shall not apply to any person -

- (a) who carries on any banking business, or the business of dealings in foreign currency, regulated by the Banking Act 2004, the Bank of Mauritius Act 2004, or any other enactment relating thereto; or ^{162*}
- (b) who carries on the business of providing financial services regulated by the Financial Services Development Act 2001^{163*}.

(4) Any person who -

- (a) fails to provide such assistance or to answer such questions as may be required under this section; or
- (b) obstructs the Director-General or any officer in the exercise of his powers under this section, ^{164*} shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 200,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years.

32A. Power to access computers and other electronic devices ^{165*}

(1) For the purposes of ascertaining the tax liability of any person under this Act, the Director-General may, subject to subsection (2), at any reasonable time –

- (a) have access to –
 - (i) any computer, computer software, whether installed in the computer or otherwise, electronic till or any other device, used connection with any document which the person is required to produce for the purpose of ascertaining his tax liability: or

- (ii) any information, code or technology which has the capability of retransforming or unscrambling encrypted data contained or available to such computers or devices into readable and comprehensive format or text;
 - (b) inspect and check the operation of any such computer, electronic till or other device and make extracts of any computer software, computer output or such other documents used in connection therewith;
 - (c) require any person by whom or on whose behalf the computer or other electronic device is operated, or any person concerned with the operation of the equipment, to give such assistance as is necessary for the purposes of this section; and
 - (d) require any person in possession of decryption information to grant him access to such decryption information necessary to decrypt data required for the purposes of this section.
- (2) Subsection (1) shall not apply to any person referred to in section 32(3).

33. Time limit to require information, books or records

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), no person shall be required -
- (a) to furnish or give any information under section 28 or 29; or
 - (b) to produce any books or records under section 31 or 32, after 5 years immediately following the last day of the taxable period in which any related transaction took place.

- (2) Subsection (1) shall not apply in case of wilful neglect, evasion or fraud.

34. Power to require security

(1) The Director-General may, for the purposes of securing payment of any tax due, require a person to give security in such amount and in such manner as the Director-General thinks fit. ^{166*}

(2) Any person who, without any reasonable cause, fails to give such security as is required under subsection (1) shall commit an offence.

34A. Power to waive penalty or interest ^{167*}

(1) The Director-General may waive the whole or part of any penalty or interest imposed under this Act where he is satisfied that failure to comply with this Act was attributable to a just or reasonable cause.

(2) In the exercise of his power under subsection (1), the Director-General shall, in writing, record the reasons for waiving the whole or part of the penalty or interest.

35. Warrant to search and seize

(1) Subject to subsection (2), where the Director-General has reasonable ground to believe that an offence has been, is being or is likely to be committed under this Act, he may apply to a District Magistrate for the issue of a warrant to an officer -

- (a) to enter and search any business premises or place where any business is carried on or anything is done in connection with the business;
- (b) to inspect or examine any goods or books, records or other documents, whether kept on computer or otherwise, found therein; and
- (c) to seize those goods, books, records or other documents or any computer, device, apparatus, materials or computer software used in connection with the business, where such seizure is necessary for any examination or investigation. ^{168*}

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply to any person referred to in section 32(3).

(3) Any goods, books, records or other documents or computer, device, apparatus, material or computer software seized under subsection (1)(c) shall be returned to the person from whom they were seized when no longer required. ^{169*}

36. Proceedings for temporary closing down of business ^{170*}

(1) “Where, in respect of a taxable period -

- (a) a registered person fails to submit a return under section 22 or fails to pay the tax payable under that section on or before the last day on which the return is required to be submitted and payment of tax made; and
- (b) the Director-General is of the opinion that tax ought to have been paid by the registered person for that taxable period; or
- (c) a taxable person fails to pay any amount of tax assessed or claimed under this Act, the Director-General may notify the person in writing of his intention to close down part or the whole of the business of that person for a temporary period not exceeding 14 days, unless the person complies with the requirement of that section within a period of 7 days of the date of the notice.

- (2) (a) Where the registered person fails to comply with the notice issued under subsection (1), the Director-General may make an application under oath, in such form as may be prescribed, to a District Magistrate for an order to close down part or the whole of the business of that person for a period not exceeding 14 days.

- (b) Where an application under oath is made to a Magistrate in the manner specified in paragraph (a), the Magistrate may forthwith grant the application.
- (c) Upon granting an application under paragraph (b), the Magistrate shall issue an order to an Usher, in such form as may be prescribed, to close down the business of the person in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(3) Where an Usher executes an order under subsection (2), he shall affix in a conspicuous place on the front of the premises of the business or part of the business which has been closed, a notice duly certified by the Director-General bearing the words “CLOSED TEMPORARILY FOR NOT SUBMITTING VAT RETURN AND NOT PAYING VAT”; or the words “CLOSED TEMPORARILY FOR NOT PAYING VAT”, as the case may be.

(4) Where an order under subsection (2) has been executed and the registered person complies with the requirements of –

- (a) section 22; or
- (b) section 22(1) and gives security to the satisfaction of the Director-General for the payment of any tax due, the order shall lapse and the Director-General shall, in writing, notify the registered person accordingly.

(5) Any person who, contrary to the order, carries on the business or part of the business concerned or who commits any act in breach of the order under this section, shall commit an offence.

36A. Anti-avoidance provisions ^{171*}

(1) Where the Director-General is satisfied that the purpose or effect of any arrangement or transaction is directly or indirectly –

- (a) to reduce or avoid any liability imposed or which would otherwise have been imposed on any person by this Act;
- (b) to relieve any person from any liability to tax;
- (c) to alter the incidence or postpone the time due of any tax which is payable by or which would otherwise have been payable by any person; or
- (d) to obtain credit for any input tax or repayment of any tax which would not otherwise have been obtained.

the Director-General may, without prejudice to such validity as it may have in any other respect or for any other purpose, disregard or vary, for the purposes of this Act, the arrangement or transaction and make such adjustments as he considers appropriate so as to counteract any tax advantage obtained or obtainable by that person from or under that arrangement or transaction.

(2) This section shall not apply to any arrangement or transaction carried out for bona fide commercial reasons and does not have as one of its main purposes: the avoidance or reduction of tax or the obtaining of any tax advantage.

- (3) For the purposes of this section, “tax advantage” includes -
- (a) any reduction in the liability of any person to pay tax;
 - (b) any reduction in the total consideration payable by any person in respect of any supply of goods or services;
 - (c) any postponement of the time when tax is due or payable; or
 - (d) any increase in the entitlement of a person to a credit for input tax or repayment of tax.

PART VIII - ASSESSMENTS, OBJECTIONS AND REVIEW OF ASSESSMENTS ^{172*}

37. Director-General may make assessments ^{173*}

- (1) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), where -
- (a) a person -
 - (i) fails to submit a return under section 22 or a statement under section 23;
 - (ii) fails to keep proper records;
 - (iii) fails to comply with any of the requirements under section 29, 31 or 32;
 - (iv) being a taxable person, fails to apply for registration as a registered person under the Act;
 - (v) benefits from a repayment of tax under section 24 and it is subsequently found that the tax or part of the tax ought not to have been repaid; or
 - (vi) fails to remit to the Director-General any VAT charged on any supply made by him; or
 - (b) the Director-General is not satisfied -
 - (i) with a return submitted under section 22 or a statement under section 23; or

- (ii) with the adequacy or correctness of the records kept,

the Director-General may, on such information as is available to him, make an assessment of the tax due and payable by that person or of the excess amount to be carried forward in case the input tax exceeds the output tax and give to that person written notice of the assessment.

(2) Where the Director-General has given notice of assessment to any person under subsection (1), that person shall, subject to section 38, pay the amount of tax specified in the notice, not later than 28 days of the date of the notice.

(3) Subject to subsection (5), an assessment under subsection (1) shall not be made in respect of a period before 3 years immediately preceding the last day of the taxable period in which the liability to pay tax arose.^{174 *}

(4) No assessment under subsection (1) shall be made where the amount of tax or the reduction in the excess amount to be carried forward does not exceed 250 rupees.¹⁷⁵

(5) Subsection (3) shall not apply in case of fraud.^{176 *}

37A. Penalty on amount claimed in assessment ^{177*}

(1) Where an assessment is made under section 37, the amount of tax claimed in the assessment shall carry a penalty not exceeding 50 percent and such penalty shall be deemed to be part of the tax claimed.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), “tax claimed”, in relation to the relevant taxable period -

- (a) means the difference between the amount of tax payable in the assessment and tax declared in the return under section 22 or statement under section 23; but
- (b) does not include -
 - (i) any penalty under sections 15A, 24(9), 26, 26A, and 27; and
 - (ii) any interest under section 27A.

38. Objection to assessments

(1)^{178 *} (a) Where a person assessed to tax under section 37 is dissatisfied with the assessment, he may, within 28 days of the date of the notice of assessment, object to the assessment in a form approved by the Director-General.

(b) The form referred to in paragraph (a), duly filled in, shall be sent by the person objecting, by registered post, to the Director-General.

(2) Any person who objects ^{179 *} under subsection (1) shall –

- (a) specify in the form, in respect of each of the items in the notice of assessment, the detailed grounds ¹⁸⁰ * of objection and the adjustments that are required to be made and the reasons therefor;
- (b) submit, at the time of his objection ¹⁸¹ * in respect of each of the taxable periods covered by the assessment, any return required under section 22 or any statement required under section 23;
- (c) at the time of his objection, pay any amount of tax specified in the return or statement referred to in paragraph (b) together with any penalty under sections 15A, 24(9), 26, 26A and 27 and any interest under section 27A; and ¹⁸² *
- (d) ¹⁸³ * in addition, pay, at the time of his objection, the difference, if any, between 10 per cent of the amount of tax claimed in the notice of assessment and the amount of tax paid under paragraph (c).

(2A) ¹⁸⁴ * Where the person, within the time limit referred to in subsection (1), satisfies the Director-General on reasonable grounds that he is unable to pay the amount of tax under subsection (2)(c) and (d) in one instalment, the person shall –

- (a) pay that amount; or
- (b) give security by way of a bank guarantee, on such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Director-General.

(3) Where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Director-General that, owing to illness or other reasonable cause, a person has been prevented from making ¹⁸⁵ * an objection within the time specified in subsection (1), the Director-General may consider the objection as a valid objection under that subsection.

(4) Where the Director-General refuses to consider a late objection he shall, within 28 days of the date of receipt of the letter of objection, give notice of the refusal to the person.

(5) Where the person fails to comply with subsection (2) the objection shall be deemed to have lapsed and the Director-General shall, give notice thereof to that person. ¹⁸⁶ *

(6) Where a notice under subsection (4) or (5) is given, the tax specified in the notice of assessment together with any penalty under sections 15A, 24(9), 26, 26A, 27 and 37A and any interest under section 27A shall be paid within 28 days of the date of the notice or the excess amount as assessed shall be deemed to be the excess amount to be carried forward, as the case may be. ¹⁸⁷ *

39. Determination of objections

(1) For the purposes of considering an objection, the Director-General may, by notice in writing, require the person, within the time fixed by the Director-General, to furnish or give any information, or produce any books or records, specified in sections 29 and 31.

- (2) After considering an objection, the Director-General shall -
- (a) disallow or allow it, in whole or in part;
 - (b) determine the objection;
 - (c) where appropriate, amend the assessment accordingly, and give notice of his determination to the person.

(3) Where a notice of determination under subsection (2) is given, the tax specified in the notice together with any penalty under sections 15A, 24(9), 26, 26A, 27 and 37A and any interest under section 27A shall be paid within 28 days of the date of the notice, or the excess amount of input tax against output tax as determined shall be carried forward, as the case may be. ^{188*}

(3A) Where an assessment is reduced pursuant to a determination under subsection (2), any amount of tax paid under section 38 (2) (d) in excess of the amount payable in accordance with that determination, shall be refunded, together with interest free of income tax, at the prevailing Repo rate determined by the Bank of Mauritius from the date the payment is received by the Director-General to the date it is refunded. ^{189*}

- (4) A notice of determination under subsection (2) in respect of an assessment-^{190*}
- (a) made prior to 1 October 2006, shall be given to the person within 6 months of the date on which the objection is lodged; or
 - (b) made on or after 1 October 2006, shall be given to the person within 4 months of the date on which the objection is lodged.

(5) Where an objection is not determined by the Director-General within the period specified in subsection (4), the objection shall be deemed to have been allowed by the Director-General.

(6) Any objection under section 38 shall be dealt with independently by an objection directorate set up by the Director-General. ^{191*}

40. Representations to Assessment Review Committee

- (1) Any person who is aggrieved by a decision of the Director-General -
- (a) as to whether or not a supply of goods or services is a taxable supply;
 - (b) relating to the registration or cancellation of registration of any person;
 - (c) under section 38(4) and (5), 39 or 67,

may lodge written representations with the Clerk to the Assessment Review Committee in accordance with section 19 of the Mauritius Revenue Authority Act 2004 ^{192*}

- (2) (a) Where an agreement is reached before, or a decision is made by, the Assessment Review Committee, the Director-General, shall, within 5 working days of the date of the agreement or notification of the decision, as the case may be, issue a notice to the person specifying the amount of value added tax payable.^{193 *}
- (b) Where a notice is issued to a person under paragraph (a), that person shall pay the amount of value added tax within 28 days of the date of the notice.

41. Conclusiveness of assessments

Except during a hearing of representations before the Assessment Review Committee^{194*}

- (a) no assessment under section 37, decision under section 38(4) or (5), determination under section 39, an agreement under section 61 or a notice under section 67, shall be disputed in any court or in any proceedings either on the ground that the person affected is not liable to tax or the amount of tax due and payable is excessive or on any other ground; and
- (b) every such assessment, decision, determination, agreement or notice, shall be final and conclusive.

PART IX - RECOVERY OF TAX

42. Priority for VAT charged by a registered person

(1) Notwithstanding any other enactment, VAT due and payable by a registered person under this Act -

- (a) shall be held on behalf of the Government of Mauritius; and
- (b) shall not be subject to attachment in respect of any debt or liability of the registered person.

(2) In the event of the liquidation or bankruptcy of the registered person, the amount of tax due and payable by that person shall not form part of the estate in liquidation or bankruptcy and shall be paid in full to the Director-General before any distribution of property is made.

43. Recovery of tax by attachment

The Director-General may, without prejudice to any other action which he may take, enforce payment of any tax payable under this Act by attachment in the same manner as is provided in the Attachment (Rates and Taxes) Act.^{195*}

44. Recovery of tax by distress and sale

(1) The Director-General may issue a warrant in a form as may be prescribed to an Usher of the Supreme Court to recover tax payable under this Act by distress and sale of the goods, chattels and effects of the person charged or of the person answerable for its payment.

- (2) Three days' notice of such sale shall be given in the Gazette.

45. Inscribed privilege

(1) The Government shall have, in respect of any tax payable under this Act and so long as the tax is not paid in full or the tax liability is not discharged, a privilege on all immovable properties belonging to the person by whom the tax is payable.^{196*}

(2) Where the Director-General thinks it necessary for securing the recovery of any tax payable under this Act to inscribe the privilege provided for under subsection (1), he shall deposit with the Conservator of Mortgages 2 identical memoranda in a form as may be prescribed and shall forthwith notify the person by whom the tax is payable, of the deposit of the memoranda.

(3) The Conservator of Mortgages shall, upon deposit of the memoranda, inscribe the privilege generally on all immovable properties belonging, or which may subsequently belong, to the person by whom the tax is payable, and shall return one of the memoranda to the Director-General with a statement written or stamped on it to the effect that the privilege has duly been inscribed.

(4) Where a privilege is inscribed under this section, it shall take effect from the date of the inscription.

- (5) (a) Where any tax in respect of which an inscription has been taken under this section is paid in full or the tax liability is discharged, the Director-General shall forthwith send to the Conservator of Mortgages a request in a form as may be prescribed to erase the inscription.

- (b) The Director-General may send a request to the Conservator of Mortgages to erase the inscription in respect of any property belonging to the debtor where the Director-General is satisfied that the value of the other properties of the debtor is sufficient to secure payment of the amount of tax which has remained unpaid.^{197*}

- (6) (a) The inscription of a privilege under this section shall be erased by the Conservator of Mortgages at the request of the Director-General.

- (b) Where an inscription of privilege is erased pursuant to paragraph (a), the Director-General shall, within 5 working days of the date of the notification of the erasure by the Conservator of Mortgages, give notice in writing thereof to the person who owed the tax.^{198*}

(7) Any inscription or erasure of inscription which is required to be taken or made under this section shall be free from stamp duty under the Stamp Duty Act 1990 or registration dues leviable under the Registration Duty Act or any other costs.

* Please refer to endnotes at Appendix

46. Uninscribed privilege

(1) Notwithstanding section 45, but subject to subsection (2), the privilege for the recovery of taxes under Articles 2148 and 2152 of the Code Napoleon shall operate on account of tax payable under this Act independently of and without the necessity for inscription, upon -

- (a) personal property wherever found;
- (b) the proceeds of the sale of immovable property; and
- (c) the crops, fruits, rents and revenues, belonging to the person owing the tax.

(2) The privilege conferred under subsection (1) shall operate only in respect of tax payable for a period of 12 months, at the discretion of the Director-General, and shall rank immediately after the privilege for judicial costs.

47. Contrainte

(1) Where any tax is payable under this Act, the Director-General may apply to a Judge in Chambers for an order (Contrainte) to issue against the debtor.

(2) Any order issued under subsection (1) shall -

- (a) be served on the debtor; and
- (b) be executory.

(3) Any debtor aggrieved by an order issued under subsection (1) may, within 21 days of the service of the order, appeal to the Supreme Court.

(4) No costs shall be awarded against an unsuccessful party except disbursement for -

- (a) stamp duty under the Stamp Duty Act 1990;
- (b) service of the order; and
- (c) execution of the order.

48. No limitation of action for recovery of tax

No law relating to the limitation of action shall bar or affect any action or remedy for the recovery of tax payable under this Act.

PART XA - SOLIDARITY LEVY^{210*}

53A Purpose of solidarity levy

The purpose of the solidarity levy raised under this Part shall be to finance the Empowerment Programme referred to in the 2006 - 2007 Budget Speech

53B. Liability to solidarity levy

(1) Subject to other provisions of this Part, every operator shall be liable to pay to the Director-General a solidarity levy calculated on his turnover at the rate specified in Part II of the Eleventh Schedule.

(2) The levy under this Part shall be raised in respect of the 4 financial years ending 30 June 2010.

(3) The liability to solidarity levy shall be suspended in respect of the taxable period from 1 January 2009 to 30 June 2010.^{211 *}

53C. Payment of solidarity levy

Every operator shall, after the end of every taxable period, within such time as may be prescribed, pay to the Director-General, in respect of that period, the levy in such manner as may be approved by the Director-General.

53D Circumstances in which no levy is payable

No levy shall be paid in a financial year where -

(a) the operator had incurred a loss; or

(b) the profit of the operator before tax does not exceed 5 per cent of his turnover, in respect of the accounting year immediately preceding the commencement of the financial year.

53E. Adjustment of levy

(1) Where no levy is payable by an operator in a financial year by virtue of section 53D and at the end of the financial year, it is found that his profit before tax in respect of the accounting year immediately preceding the end of the financial year exceeds 5 per cent of his turnover for that accounting year, the operator shall pay to the Director-General the total levy in respect of that financial year within such time as may be prescribed.

- (2) Where levy is payable by an operator during a financial year and it is found that -
 - (a) the operator had incurred a loss; or
 - (b) the profit of the operator before tax does not exceed 5 per cent of his turnover, in respect of the accounting year immediately preceding the end of the financial year, the levy paid during that financial year shall be refunded to the operator within such time as may be prescribed.

53F. Late payment of levy

Where the operator fails to pay the levy on or before last day on which it is payable under section 53C, he shall be liable to pay to the Director General, in addition to the levy –

- (a) a penalty of 5 per cent of the levy; and

69A. Rulings ²³² *

(1) Any person, who in the course or furtherance of his business, makes taxable supplies, may apply to the Director-General for a ruling as to the application of this Act to any of the supplies made to him or made by him.

(2) An application under this section shall be in writing and shall –

- (a) include full details of the transaction relating to the supply together with all documents relevant to the transaction;
- (b) specify precisely the question as to which the ruling is required;
- (c) give a full statement setting out the opinion of that person as to the application of this Act to that supply; and
- (d) be accompanied by such fee as may be prescribed.

(3) The Director-General shall, within 30 days of the receipt of an application under this section, give a ruling on the question on the applicant.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), a ruling under this section shall be binding upon the Director-General.

(5) Where there is any material difference between the actual facts relating to the transaction and the details contained in the application, the ruling shall not be binding upon the Director-General.

(6) A ruling under this section shall be published by the Director-General in such manner as he thinks fit except that the identity of the person to whom the ruling relates shall not be indicated in the publication.

(7) Subject to subsection (8), any person may rely upon a ruling published under subsection (6) as a statement binding on the Director-General with respect to the application of this Act to the facts set out in that ruling.

(8) The Director-General may publish a notice in the Gazette to the effect that a ruling which he has previously published shall cease to be binding with effect from a date which shall not be earlier than the date of the notice.

69B. Statement of Practice ^{233*}

The Director - General shall, from time to time, issue and publish Statements of Practice in relation to the application of specific provisions of this Act.

70. Jurisdiction of Magistrate

- (1) Notwithstanding -
 - (a) section 114(2) of the Courts Act; and
 - (b) section 72(5) of the District and Intermediate Courts (Criminal Jurisdiction) Act, a Magistrate shall, subject to subsection (2), have jurisdiction to try an offence under this Act or any regulations made thereunder and may impose any penalty provided by this Act.

(2) The prosecution of an offence under any of the sections of this Act specified in the Fourth Schedule to the Mauritius Revenue Authority Act 2004 shall take place, at the discretion of the Director of Public Prosecutions, before a Judge sitting without a jury, the Intermediate Court or a District Court.^{234 *}

71. Burden of proof

(1) Notwithstanding any other enactment, the burden of proof that any tax has been paid, or any supply of goods or services, or any person, is exempt from tax shall lie on the person -

- (a) liable to pay the tax;
- (b) claiming that the tax has been paid; or
- (c) claiming that he is, or the supply of the goods or services is, exempt from tax.

(2) In any action or proceedings arising out of the seizure of any goods under this Act, the burden of proving that the seizure is illegal shall lie on the person making the allegation.

72. Regulations

- (1) The Minister may -
 - (a) make such regulations as he thinks fit for the purposes of this Act;
 - (b) by regulations –
 - (i) prescribe any matter which may or is required to be prescribed under this Act; or

- (ii) amend the First Schedule, the Second Schedule, the Third Schedule and the Twelfth Schedule.²³⁵
- (2) Any regulations made under this section may provide for -
 - (a) the proper implementation of any International Convention, Treaty or Agreement to which Mauritius is a contracting party; or
 - (b) the levying of fees and charges.^{236*}

73. Transitional provisions^{237*}

(1) Notwithstanding this Act, where a person who applies for VAT registration on or before 30 June 2013 ought to have been registered prior to the date of his registration, he shall submit the statement under section 23 in respect of taxable periods commencing on the date he was required to be registered or 1 January 2010, whichever is the later, and ending on the date immediately preceding the date of his registration.

- (2) A person referred to in subsection (1) -
 - (a) shall submit the statement required under section 23, by 30 September 2013 at latest;
 - (b) may take credit for input tax for the taxable periods in respect of which the statement is submitted; and
 - (c) shall be allowed such deemed credit for input tax as may be determined by the Director-General where he cannot substantiate the VAT paid or payable on the taxable supplies made to him during the period prior to registration.

(3) A person who makes an application for VAT registration pursuant to subsection (1) shall not be liable to -

- (a) penalty for failure to apply for compulsory registration under section 15A;
- (b) penalty for late payment of tax under section 27; and
- (c) interest on unpaid tax under section 27A, from the date the tax was due to 30 September 2013.

(4) Where, on or before 30 September 2013, a registered person makes a voluntary disclosure of his undeclared or underdeclared VAT liability for taxable periods prior to taxable period commencing on 1 October 2012, he shall, at the same time, pay the VAT at the appropriate rate in force in respect of each taxable period, free from any penalty that may have become due in accordance with this Act and free of interest up to 30 September 2013 under section 27A.

(5) For the purpose of the disclosure under subsection (4), the person shall be entitled to credit for input tax in respect of the period of the disclosure.

(6) Where the VAT disclosed under subsection (4) is not paid by 30 September 2013, any unpaid VAT shall carry interest at the rate of one per cent per month.

(7) Where a person who has been assessed to tax -

- (a) has objected to the assessment under section 38;
- (b) has lodged a representation with the Clerk of the Assessment Review Committee; or
- (c) has appealed to the Supreme Court or to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, he may apply to the Director-General for the tax assessed to be considered as a voluntary disclosure of undeclared VAT under subsection (4), provided that he withdraws his objection, representation or appeal, as the case may be.

(8) Where a person has made an application under subsection (7), his VAT liability shall be recomputed to take into account the credit for input tax for the period assessed and any agreement reached between the person and the Director-General on any item under dispute.

- (9) (a) The disclosure under subsection (4) shall be made in such form and manner and under such conditions as may be determined by the Director-General.
- (b) Failure to comply with any condition under this subsection shall entail the withdrawal of any benefits under subsections (4) and (10) to the taxpayer.

(10) Where a person -

- (a) submits a statement of VAT payable in respect of the period prior to the date of his registration pursuant to subsection (2); or
- (b) makes a voluntary disclosure of his VAT liability pursuant to subsection (4); and the Director General is satisfied with the statement or disclosure, as the case may be, the person shall be deemed, notwithstanding sections 54 to 61, not to have committed an offence.

(10A) (a) Where the Director-General and a person have entered into an agreement for the payment of the tax due by that person pursuant to subsection (4) in respect of a period, the Director-General shall not – ²³⁸ *

- (i) request from that person any information, statement or return; or
- (ii) make an assessment on, or a claim on, that person, for that period, unless the Director-General applies ex parte for and obtains the authorisation of the Independent Tax Panel under the Mauritius Revenue Authority Act.

(b) Where, before the commencement of paragraph (a), an assessment or a claim has been made after the date of an agreement pursuant to subsection (4) in respect of the period covered in the agreement and the assessment or claim has remained pending at the level of objection at the Authority or pending before the Assessment Review Committee, the assessment or claim shall, at the commencement of paragraph (a), lapse, unless the Director-General applies ex parte for and obtains the authorisation of the Independent Tax Panel.

(c) An authorisation under paragraph (a) or (b) shall be granted where the Director-General establishes to the satisfaction of the Independent Tax Panel that there is prima facie evidence of fraud.

(11) Where VAT arrears outstanding as at 31 December 2012 are paid by a person on or before 30 November 2013, any penalty included in the VAT arrears shall be reduced -

- (a) by 100 per cent of penalty charged under sections 15A and 24(9); and
- (b) by 75 per cent of penalty and interest charged under sections 26, 27 and 27A, provided that an application for the reduction is made to the Director-General on or before 30 September 2013.

(12) In subsection (11) -

“VAT arrears” -

- (a) means tax in respect of -
 - (i) a return made under section 22;
 - (ii) a statement made under section 23; or
 - (iii) an assessment made under section 37,

Before 30 June 2006 and tax and penalties in connection thereto have remained unpaid; but

- (b) does not include tax due under an assessment which is pending before the Assessment Review Committee, Supreme Court or Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.

(13) This section shall not apply to any person -

- (a) who has been convicted on or after 1 July 2001 of an offence relating to;
- (b) against whom any civil or criminal proceedings are pending or contemplated in relation to an act of; or
- (c) in relation to whom an enquiry is being conducted into an act of, the trafficking of dangerous drugs, arms trafficking, or an offence related to terrorism under the Prevention of Terrorism Act, money laundering under the Financial Intelligence and Anti-Money Laundering Act or corruption under the Prevention of Corruption Act.

(14) Where a person ceases to be a registered person on 1 April 2013 on grounds that his annual turnover does not exceed or is not likely to exceed 4 million rupees and his return for the last taxable period shows an excess amount, that amount shall be deemed to be value added tax on trading stocks held, and in respect of services not supplied, by that person and shall not be refundable and shall not be carried forward as a credit to be offset against his VAT liability, if any.

237 FA 2012 – Section 73 Repealed and replaced w.e.f. 22 December 2012.

(1) Notwithstanding this Act, where a person who applies for VAT registration on or before 31 March 2012 ought to have been registered prior to the date of his registration, he shall submit the statement under section 23 in respect of taxable periods commencing on the date he was required to be registered or 1 January 2010, whichever is the later, and ending on the date immediately preceding the date of his registration.

(2) A person referred to in subsection (1) -

- (a) shall submit the statement required under section 23, by 30 June 2012 at latest;
- (b) may take credit for input tax for the taxable periods in respect of which the statement is submitted; and

- (c) where he cannot substantiate the VAT paid or payable on the taxable supplies made to him during the period prior to registration, shall be allowed to such deemed credit for input tax as may be determined by the Director-General.
- (3) A person who makes an application for VAT registration pursuant to subsection (1) shall not be liable to -
- (a) penalty for failure to apply for compulsory registration under section 15A;
 - (b) penalty for late payment of tax under section 27; and
 - (c) interest on unpaid tax under section 27A, from the date the tax was due to 30 June 2012.
- (4) Where, on or before 30 June 2012, a registered person makes a voluntary disclosure of his undeclared or underdeclared VAT liability for taxable periods prior to taxable period commencing on 1 October 2011, he shall, at the same time, pay the VAT at the appropriate rate in force in respect of each taxable period, free from any penalty that may have become due in accordance with this Act and free of interest up to 30 June 2012 under section 27A.
- (5) For the purpose of the disclosure under subsection (4), the person shall be entitled to credit for input tax in respect of the period of the disclosure.
- (6) Where the VAT disclosed under subsection (4) is not paid by 30 June 2012, any unpaid VAT shall carry interest at the rate of one per cent per month.
- (7) Where a person who has been assessed to tax -
- (a) has objected to the assessment under section 38;
 - (b) has lodged a representation with the Clerk of the Assessment Review Committee; or
 - (c) has made an appeal to the Supreme Court or to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, he may apply to the Director-General for the tax assessed to be considered as a voluntary disclosure of undeclared VAT under subsection (4), provided that he withdraws his objection, representation or appeal, as the case may be.
- (8) Where a person has made an application under subsection (7), his VAT liability shall be recomputed to take into account the credit for input tax for the period assessed.
- (9) The disclosure under subsection (4) shall be made in such form and manner and under such conditions as may be determined by the Director-General.
- (10) Where a person -
- (a) submits a statement of VAT payable in respect of the period prior to the date of his registration pursuant to subsection (2); or
 - (b) makes a voluntary disclosure of his VAT liability pursuant to subsection (4); and
- the Director-General is satisfied with the statement or disclosure, as the case may be, the person shall be deemed, notwithstanding sections 54 to 61, not to have committed an offence.

(11) Where VAT arrears outstanding as at 31 December 2011 are paid by a person on or before 30 September 2012, any penalty included in the VAT arrears shall be reduced -

- (a) by 100 per cent of penalty charged under sections 15A and 24(9); and
- (b) by 75 per cent of penalty and interest charged under sections 26, 27 and 27A, provided that an application for the reduction is made to the Director-General on or before 30 June 2012.

(12) For the purposes of subsection (11), "VAT arrears" means tax remaining unpaid on submission of a return under section 22, a statement made under section 23 or an assessment made under section 37 but excludes tax and penalties due under a return or statement submitted or an assessment raised after 30 June 2006.

(13) This section shall not apply to any person -

- (a) who has been convicted on or after 1 July 2001 of an offence relating to;
- (b) against whom any civil or criminal proceedings are pending or contemplated in relation to an act of; or
- (c) in relation to whom an enquiry is being conducted into an act of, trafficking of dangerous drugs, arms trafficking, or an offence related to terrorism under the Prevention of Terrorism Act, money laundering under the Financial Intelligence and Anti-Money Laundering Act or corruption under the Prevention of Corruption Act.

FA 2011 - Section 73 Repealed and replaced - in so far as it relates to subsections (4) to (13) of section 73 of the Value Added Tax Act, shall come into operation on 1 January 2012.

(1) Notwithstanding this Act, where a person becomes liable to be registered as a registered person under this Act pursuant to the amendment made to the Sixth Schedule by section 31(y) of the Finance Act 2006, he shall, subject to the other provisions of this section, not later than 15 October 2006, submit to the Director-General, a certified inventory of -

- (a) his trading stocks as at 30 September 2006; and
- (b) capital goods, being plant, machinery or equipment of a capital nature, acquired within a period not exceeding 3 months immediately preceding 1 October 2006, showing, where applicable, the amount of VAT paid or payable thereon.

(2) Subject to subsection (3) and to section 21(2), where a person has submitted a certified inventory under subsection (1), he may take credit of the VAT paid or payable on his trading stocks and capital goods -

- (a) where his taxable period is a quarter, 50 per cent of the amount of VAT in his return for each of the second and third taxable periods; or
- (b) where his taxable period is a month, 50 per cent of the amount of VAT in his return for each of the third and sixth taxable periods.

(3) No credit under subsection (2) shall be allowed, unless -

- (a) the inventory referred to in subsection (1) has been submitted;
- (b) the VAT on the trading stocks was paid or payable within a period not exceeding 3 months immediately preceding 1 October 2006; and
- (c) the VAT paid or payable is substantiated by receipts or invoices issued by VAT registered persons or by customs import declarations.
- (4) The person shall, together with the inventory referred to in subsection (1), submit a statement specifying -
- (a) the amount of VAT which relates to -
- (i) capital goods, being plant, machinery or equipment of a capital nature; and
- (ii) other taxable goods used to make taxable supplies;
- (b) the amount of VAT paid or payable within a period not exceeding 3 months immediately preceding 1 October 2006.
- (5) The inventory referred to in subsection (1) and the statement referred to in subsection (4) shall be duly certified by a qualified auditor.
- (6) Any exemption of VAT granted under item 8 of the Ninth Schedule shall lapse on 1 October 2006.
- FA 2007 - Section 73 amended, by adding immediately by after subsection (6), subsections (7) to (13) w.e.f 01.07.07
- (7) Where a taxable person makes, by 31 December 2007, a voluntary disclosure of his undeclared or underdeclared VAT liability in respect of any taxable period falling within the 5 years ended 30 June 2006, he shall, at the same time, pay VAT in accordance with the disclosure at the appropriate rate in force in respect of each of the taxable periods, together with interest at the rate 0.5 per cent per month as from the date the VAT was due and payable. ^{237*}
- (8) Where the VAT and interest under subsection (7) is not paid at the time of the disclosure, any unpaid VAT and interest shall carry interest at the rate of 14 per cent per annum.
- (9) Where a person makes a voluntary disclosure under subsection (7) and the Director-General is satisfied with such disclosure, that person shall be deemed, notwithstanding sections 54 to 61, not to have committed an offence.
- (10) The disclosure under subsection (7) shall be made in such form and manner as may be determined by the Director-General.
- (11) Where VAT arrears as at 30 June 2007 is paid by a person on or before 31 December 2007, any penalty included therein for non-payment of the VAT shall be reduced by 75 per cent.
- (12) For the purposes of subsection (11), "VAT arrears" means -
- (a) tax remaining unpaid on submission of a return under section 22 or a statement made under section 23;

- (b) tax liability which is final and conclusive pursuant to section 41 and which has remained unpaid;
 - (c) tax remaining unpaid and pending following an objection made under section 38 or under review by the Assessment Review Committee; or
 - (d) tax remaining unpaid and pending an appeal before the Supreme Court or an appeal before the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.
- (13) Subsections (7) and (11) shall not apply to any person who has been convicted on or after 1 July 2001 or against whom any civil or criminal proceedings are pending or contemplated or enquiry is being conducted into or relating to the trafficking of dangerous drugs, arms trafficking, offences related to terrorism under the Prevention of Terrorism Act 2002, money laundering under the Financial Intelligence and Anti-Money Laundering Act 2002 or corruption under the Prevention of Corruption Act 2002.
