(2) For the purpose of this Act, goods shall be classified by reference to the nomenclature set out in Annex 1 to the Protocol on the Establishment of the East African Community Customs Union and in interpreting the Annex; the general rules of interpretation set out therein shall apply.

PART II — ADMINISTRATION

Functions and powers of the Commissioner and other officers

3.(1) The Commissioner shall be responsible for the control and collection of, and accounting for, duties, fees and levies paid under this Act and shall, subject to the direction and control of the Cabinet Secretary, have the superintendence of all matters relating thereto.

(2) The Commissioner shall appoint such officers as may be necessary for the administration of this Act.

(3) The Commissioner may authorize any officer appointed under this section to perform any of the functions of the Commissioner under this Act or the regulations, other than the functions under subsection (2).

(4) Every authorised officer appointed under this section shall enforce, and ensure due compliance with, the provisions of this Act and the regulations, and shall make all due inquiries in relation thereto.

(5) Every authorised officer appointed under this section shall, on demand, produce such documents establishing his or her identity as may be approved by the Commissioner.

(6) Every authorised officer shall, in carrying out the provisions of this Act, regard and deal with all documents and information relating to fees and charges and confidential instructions in respect of the administration this Act which may come into his possession or to knowledge in the course of his duties as confidential.

(7) Any decision made and any notice or communication issued or signed by any authorised officer may be withdrawn or amended by the Commissioner or by the authorised officer concerned, and shall, until it has been so withdrawn, be deemed to have been made, issued or signed by the Commissioner.

4. For the purposes of carrying out the provisions of this Act, every authorised officer shall, in the performance of his or her duties, have all the powers, rights, privileges and protection of a police officer.

Authorised officers to have powers of police officers

PART III — IMPOSITION OF LEVIES AND FEES

5.(1) There shall be paid a levy to be known as the export levy, on all goods specified in the First Schedule.

Imposition of export levy

(2) The levy shall, where more than one rate is specified, be the higher of the ad valorem or the specific rate specified in the First Schedule and shall be paid by the exporter at the time of entering the goods for export.

(3) The ad valorem rate shall be based on the custom value of the goods.

(4) The Commissioner shall, by notice in the Gazette, adjust the specific rate of export levy annually to take into account inflation in accordance with the formula specified in Part III of the First Schedule.

6. The provisions of section 5 shall not apply to goods exported to the East African Community Partner States.

Exemption

7.(1) There shall be paid a fee to be known as the import declaration fee, on all goods imported into the country for home use.

Import declaration fee

(2) The fee shall be at the rate of two per cent of the customs value of the goods and shall be paid by the importer of such goods at the time of entering the goods for home use.

(3) Despite subsection (1)—

- (a) import declaration fee shall not be charged on the goods specified in Part A of the Second Schedule when imported or purchased before clearance through customs; or
