tax representative
Tax Procedures
Act 2015

~~9.(1) A person who is required to apply for registration under section 34 but who does not have a fixed place of business in Kenya shall—~~

- ~~(a) appoint, in writing, a tax representative in Kenya; and~~
- ~~(b) if required to do so by the Commissioner, lodge a security with the Commissioner in accordance with section 27.~~

~~(2) If a non-resident person to whom this section applies fails to appoint a tax representative within the period prescribed under section 34, the Commissioner may appoint a tax~~

~~representative for the person.~~

~~(3) The tax representative of a non-resident person shall—~~

~~(a) be a person normally residing in Kenya;~~

~~(b) have the responsibility for doing all things required of the non-resident under this Act; and~~

~~(c) with the non-resident person, be jointly and severally liable for the payment of all taxes, fines, penalties, and interest imposed under this Act.~~

~~(4) The registration of the tax representative shall be in the name of the non-resident person being represented.~~

~~(5) A person may be a tax representative for more than one non-resident person, in which case the person shall have a separate registration for each non-resident person.~~

~~(6) The Commissioner may prescribe the mode, manner, and requirements for appointment of a tax representative and the responsibilities of the representative.~~

10.(1) If a supply of imported taxable services is made to a registered person, the registered person shall be deemed to have made a taxable supply to himself.

Treatment of imported service.

(2) If a registered person referred to in subsection (1) is entitled to –

(a) a credit for part of the amount of input tax payable, the value of the taxable supply under subsection (1) shall be reduced by an amount equal to the supply that is entitled for the input tax credit; or

(b) a full input tax credit payable on the imported taxable services under subsection (1), the value of the taxable services shall be reduced to zero.

(3) The output tax in respect of a deemed taxable supply under subsection (1) shall be payable by the registered person at the time of the supply.

(4) For the purposes of this section, if a registered person carries on a business, both in and outside Kenya, the part of the business carried on outside Kenya shall be treated as if it were carried out by a person separate from the registered person.

Place of supply of goods.

11. A supply of goods occurs in Kenya if –

(a) the goods are delivered or made available in Kenya by the supplier;

Finance Act 2017

(b) the supply of the goods involves their installation or assembly at a place in Kenya; ~~and~~ or

Finance Act 2017

(c) ~~where~~ the goods are delivered outside Kenya, the goods were in Kenya when their transportation commenced.

Time of supply of goods and services

12.(1) Subject to subsection (3), the time of supply, including a supply of imported services, shall be the earlier of –

(a) the date on which the goods are delivered, or services performed;

(b) the date a certificate is issued by an architect, surveyor or any other person acting as a consultant in a supervisory capacity;

(c) the date on which the invoice for the supply is issued; or

(d) the date on which payment for the supply is received, in whole or in part.

(2) The time of supply of goods by means of a vending machine, meter, or other device operated by use of a coin, note, or token shall be on the date the coin, note, or token is taken from the machine, meter, or other device by or on behalf of the supplier.

(3) If –

(a) goods are supplied under a rental agreement; or

(b) goods or services are made by metered supplies, or under an agreement or law that provides for periodic payments, the goods or services shall be treated as successively supplied for successive parts of the period of the lease or agreement, or as determined by law, and the time of each successive supply shall be the earlier of the date on which payment for the successive supply is due or received.

- (1) The time of supply of imported goods shall be –
 - (a) in the case of goods cleared for home use directly at the port of importation, or goods entered for removal to an inland station and there cleared for home use, at the time of customs clearance;
 - (b) in the case of goods removed to a licensed warehouse subsequent to importation, at the time of final clearance from the warehouse for home use;
 - (c) in the case of goods removed from an export processing zone, at the time of removal for home use;
 - (d) in any other case, at the time the goods are brought into Kenya.

PART V-TAXABLE VALUE

13.(1) Subject to this Act, the taxable value of a supply, including a supply of imported services, shall be-

Taxable Value of supply.

- (a) the consideration for the supply; or
- (b) if the supplier and recipient are related, the open market value of the supply.

~~(2) — The taxable value of a supply of mobile cellular services shall be the value of the services as determined for the purposes of the duty imposed under the law relating to excise.~~

Finance Act 2018

(3) Subject to subsections (4) to (6), the consideration for a supply, including a supply of imported services, shall be the total of –

- (a) the amount in money paid or payable, directly or indirectly, by any person, for the supply; or
- (b) the open market value at the time of the supply of an amount in kind paid or payable, directly or indirectly, by any person, for the supply; and
- (c) any taxes, duties, levies, fees, and charges (other than value added tax) paid or payable on, or by reason of the supply, reduced by any discounts or rebates allowed and accounted for at the time of the supply.

(4) The consideration for a supply shall include the amount charged for –

- (a) any wrapper, package, box, bottle, or other container in which goods are supplied;
- (b) any other goods contained in or attached to the wrapper, package, box, bottle or other container referred to in paragraph (a); or
- (c) any liability that the purchaser has to pay to the vendor by reason of or in respect of the supply in addition to the amount charged as price.

(5) In calculating the value of any services for the purposes of subsection (1), there shall be included any incidental costs incurred by the supplier of the services in the course of making the supply to the client:

Provided that, if the Commissioner is satisfied that the supplier has merely made a disbursement to a third party as an agent of his client, then such disbursement shall be excluded from the taxable value.

(6) The consideration for a supply shall not include -

- (a) in the case of a supply of goods under a hire purchase agreement, any financial charge payable in relation to a supply of credit under the agreement; or
- (b) any interest incurred for the late payment of the consideration for the supply.

(7) The consideration for a supply of accommodation or restaurant services shall not include the Tourism Levy imposed on the supply under the Tourism Act or any service charge paid in lieu of tips.

No.28 of 2011

Finance Act 2016

Provided that this subsection shall only apply in respect of service charge where—

- (a) the service charge is distributed directly to the employees of the hotel or restaurant in accordance with a written agreement between the employer and the employee; and

Finance Act 2016

- (b) the service charge does not exceed ten per cent of the price of the service, excluding such service charge.

(8) For the purposes of this Act, a person is related to another person if-

- (a) either person participates, directly or indirectly, in the management, control or the capital of the business of the other;
- (b) a third person participates, directly or indirectly, in the management, control or capital of the business of both; or
- (c) an individual who participates in the management, control or capital of the business of one, is associated by marriage, consanguinity or affinity to an individual who participates in the management, control or capital of the business of the other.

14.(1) The taxable value of imported goods shall be the sum of-

Taxable value of imported goods.

- (a) the value of the goods ascertained for the purpose of customs duty, in accordance with the East African Community Customs Management Act, 2004, whether or not any duty of customs is payable on the goods;
- (b) to the extent not included under paragraph (a) –
 - (i) the cost of insurance and freight incurred in bringing the goods to Kenya; and
 - (ii) the cost of services treated as part of the imported goods under this section; and
- (c) the amount of duty of customs, if any, paid on those goods.

(2) Unless the context otherwise requires, a supply of services that is ancillary or incidental to the importation of goods shall be treated as part of the importation.

Deemed taxable supply.

15.(1) An application of taxable supplies by a registered person for use outside his business shall be a taxable supply made by the person.

(2) A taxable supply under subsection (1) shall be deemed to have been made by the person on the date the supply is first used outside the business.

Debit and Credit
note.

16.(1) Where goods are returned to the registered person or, for good and valid reason the registered person decides for business reasons, to reduce the value of a supply after the issue of a tax invoice, a credit note shall be issued for the amount of the reduction:

Provided that a credit note may be issued only within six months after the issue of the relevant tax invoice.

(2) A registered person who issues a credit note under this section shall reduce the amount of his output tax in the tax period in which the credit note was issued by an amount that bears the same proportion to the tax originally charged as the amount credited bears to the total amount originally charged and the amount of tax so credited shall be specified on the credit note.

(3) A registered person who receives a credit note for the supply in respect of which he has claimed deductible input tax, shall reduce the amount of deductible input tax in the month in which the credit note is received, by the amount of tax credited.

(4) Where a registered person has issued a tax invoice in respect of a taxable supply and subsequently makes a further charge in respect of that supply, or any transaction associated with that supply, the person shall, in respect of the further charge being made, issue a debit note, and shall show on it the details of the tax invoice issued at the time of the original supply.

(5) A registered person who receives a debit note issued in compliance with subsection (4) may, if the supply is eligible therefor and in so far as it has not previously been claimed, claim as deductible input tax such further amount of tax that is being charged, in the month in which the further charge was made, or in the next subsequent month.

~~(6) A credit or debit note issued under this section shall be serially numbered and shall include details of the name, address and personal identification number of the person to whom it is issued and sufficient details to identify the tax invoice on which the supply was~~

~~made and the tax that was originally charged.~~

(6) A credit or debit note issued under this section shall be in the prescribed form.

PART VI-DEDUCTION OF INPUT TAX

17.(1) Subject to the provisions of this section and the regulations, input tax on a taxable supply to, or importation made by, a registered person may, at the end of the tax period in which the supply or importation occurred, be deducted by the registered person, subject to the exceptions provided under this section, from the tax payable by the person on supplies by him in that tax period, but only to the extent that the supply or importation was acquired to make taxable supplies.

Credit for input tax against output tax.

(2) If, at the time when a deduction for input tax would otherwise be allowable under subsection (1), the person does not hold the documentation referred to in subsection (3), the deduction for input tax shall not be allowed until the first tax period in which the person holds such documentation.

Provided that the input tax shall be allowable for a deduction within six months after the end of the tax period in which the supply or importation occurred.

(3) The documentation for the purposes of subsection (2) shall be -

- (a) an original tax invoice issued for the supply or a certified copy;
- (b) a customs entry duly certified by the proper officer and a receipt for the payment of tax;
- (c) a customs receipt and a certificate signed by the proper officer stating the amount of tax paid, in the case of goods purchased from a customs auction;
- (d) a credit note in the case of input tax deducted under section 16(2); or
- (e) a debit note in the case of input tax deducted under section 16(5).

(4) A registered person shall not deduct input tax under this Act if the tax relates to the acquisition of-

- (a) passenger cars or mini buses, and the repair and maintenance thereof including spare parts, unless the passenger cars or mini buses are acquired by the registered person exclusively for the purpose of making a taxable supply of that automobile in the ordinary course of a continuous and regular business of selling or dealing in or hiring of passenger cars or mini buses; or
- (b) entertainment, restaurant and accommodation services unless –
 - (i) the services are provided in the ordinary course of the business carried on by the person to provide the services and the services are not supplied to an associate or employee; or
 - (ii) the services are provided while the recipient is away from home for the purposes of the business of the recipient or the recipient's employer.

Provided that no tax shall be charged on the supply where no input tax deduction was allowed on that supply under this subsection.

(5) Where the amount of input tax that may be deducted by a registered person under subsection (1) in respect of a tax period exceeds the amount of output tax due for the period, the amount of the excess shall be carried forward as input tax deductible in the next tax period:

Finance Act 2015

~~Provided that any such excess shall be paid to the registered person by the Commissioner where the Commissioner is satisfied that such excess arises from making zero-rated supplies.~~ Provided that any such excess shall be paid to the registered person by the Commissioner where-

- (a) the Commissioner is satisfied that such excess arises from making zero-rated supplies; and
- (b) the registered person lodges the claim for the refund of the excess tax within twelve months from the date the tax becomes due and payable.

(6) Subject to this Act, if a taxable supply to, or a taxable import by, a registered person during a tax period relates partly to making taxable supplies and partly for another use, the input tax deductible by the person for acquisitions made during the tax period shall be determined as follows –

- (a) full deduction of all the input tax attributable to taxable supplies;
- (b) no deduction of any input tax which is directly attributable to other use; and
- (c) deduction of input tax attributable to both taxable supplies and other uses calculated according to the following formula:

$$\frac{A \times B}{C},$$

where –

A is the total amount of input tax payable by the person during the tax period on acquisitions that relate partly to making taxable supplies and partly for another use;

B is the value of all taxable supplies made by the registered person during the period; and

C is the value of all supplies made by the registered person during the period in Kenya.

(7) If the fraction of the formula in subsection (6) for a tax period –

- (a) is more than 0.90, the registered person shall be allowed an input tax credit for all of the input tax comprising component A of the formula; or
- (b) is less than 0.10, the registered person shall not be allowed any input tax credit for the input tax comprising component A of the formula.

18.(1) Where—

Tax paid prior to registration.

- (a) on the date exempt supplies made by a registered person become taxable, and the person had incurred input tax on such supplies; or
- (b) on the date he is registered, a person has incurred tax on taxable supplies which are intended for use in making taxable supplies, the person may, within three months from that date, claim relief from any tax shown to have been incurred on such supplies:

Provided that this subsection shall apply where such supplies are purchased, within the period of twenty-four months immediately preceding registration or the exempt supplies becoming taxable.

(2) Where the Commissioner is satisfied that the claim for relief is justified, he shall authorise the registered person to make an appropriate deduction of the relief claimed under subsection (1) from the tax payable on his next return.

(3) The claim for relief from tax under subsection (1) shall be made in the prescribed form.

PART VII-COLLECTION AND RECOVERY OF TAX

When tax is due

19.(1) Tax shall be due and payable at the time of supply.

(2) Notwithstanding the provision of subsection (1), a registered person may defer payment of tax due to a date not later than the twentieth day of the month succeeding that in which the tax became due.

Relief because of doubt or difficulty in recovery of tax.

Tax Procedures Act 2015

~~20.(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Act, the Commissioner may, with the prior approval of the Cabinet Secretary, in any case where he is of the opinion that there is—~~

~~(a) impossibility, or undue difficulty or expense, of recovery of tax; or~~

~~(b) hardship or inequity,~~

~~refrain from assessing or recovering the tax in question and thereupon liability to the tax shall be deemed to be extinguished or the tax shall be deemed to be abandoned or remitted, as the case may be.~~

~~(2) In any case which has been referred to him and where he considers it appropriate, the Cabinet Secretary may, in writing, direct the Commissioner —~~

~~(a) — to take such action as the Cabinet Secretary may deem fit; or~~

~~(b) — to obtain the directions of the court upon the case.~~

~~21.(1) — Where any amount of tax remains unpaid after the date on which it becomes payable under section 19, an interest equal to two percent per month or part thereof of the unpaid amount shall forthwith be due and payable.~~

Interest for late payment of tax.

Tax Procedures Act 2015

~~(2) — Any interest charged under subsection (1) shall, for the purpose of this Act relating to the collection and recovery of tax, be deemed to be tax and any interest which remains unpaid after becoming due and payable under subsection (1) shall attract further interest equal to two per cent per month or part thereof:~~

~~Provided that the interest chargeable under this subsection shall not exceed one hundred percent of the tax originally due.~~

~~(3) — The Commissioner may, upon application by a person from whom any interest is due under subsection (1) or (2), grant remission of the whole or part of the interest due, if satisfied that such remission is justified, and shall make quarterly reports to the Cabinet Secretary on the remission granted under this subsection:~~

~~Provided that where the amount of interest exceeds one million five hundred thousand shillings, remission shall be subject to the prior written approval of the Cabinet Secretary.~~

~~(4) — Upon receipt of an application under subsection (3), the Commissioner shall, where the applicant has paid the principal tax in full, suspend the charging of the interest pending the determination of the application.~~

~~(5) — Where the remission under subsection (3) is not granted or is granted in respect of only part of the interest, the balance of the interest shall become due and payable within ninety days of the determination of the application.~~

~~(6) — If the balance of the interest payable under subsection (5) remains unpaid after the expiry of the prescribed period, a surcharge at the rate of two percent per month or part thereof, shall forthwith be due and payable.~~

~~(7) — The Commissioner shall maintain a public record of each remission together with the reasons thereof which shall be~~

~~reported to the Auditor General on a quarterly basis.~~

Imported goods subject to customs control.

22.(1) A person shall not be entitled to obtain delivery of imported taxable goods from the control of the customs unless the person has paid, in full, the correct amount of tax due.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other written law, any taxable goods which are imported by air, land or water shall be produced by the importer to a proper officer of customs at the customs station at or nearest to the place of entry, and any importer who fails to produce any such goods commits an offence and the goods in respect of which the offence was committed shall be liable to forfeiture.

(3) The Commissioner of Customs –

- (a) shall collect tax payable under this Act on imported goods at the time of importation and shall, at that time, obtain such information as may be prescribed in respect of the importation; and
- (b) may make arrangements for such functions to be performed on his behalf in respect of imported goods through the postal service.

(4) For the purposes of this section, the Commissioner of Customs may exercise any power conferred upon him by the East African Community Customs Management Act, 2004 as if the reference to import duty in that Act includes a reference to tax payable on imported goods under this Act.

~~23.(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, where the Commissioner has reason to believe that any tax payable by any person is at risk of non-payment-~~

Risk of non-payment of tax.

Tax Procedures Act 2015

- ~~(a) — due to the imminent departure of the person from Kenya;~~
- ~~(b) — where the person, being a company, is about to be liquidated or otherwise wound up or to cease business; or~~
- ~~(c) — for any other sufficient cause;~~

~~the Commissioner may, whether or not the due date for the payment of that tax has reached, by notice in writing, issue an assessment of the tax owing, requiring that person to pay the tax within the time specified in the notice.~~

~~(2) — Any person who fails to pay tax when required to do so under subsection (1) commits an offence.~~

~~24.(1) Where any amount of tax is due and payable by a person, the Commissioner may, instead of suing for the tax, recover it by distress, and for that purpose may, by order under his hand, empower an authorised officer to levy distress on the goods and chattels of the person from whom the tax is recoverable and the officer may, at the cost of that person, employ such servants or agents as he may think necessary to assist him in the levying the distress:~~

Collection of tax by distraint.

Tax Procedures Act 2015

~~Provided that where the full amount of tax due and payable —~~

- ~~(a) — is not recovered by distress, the Commissioner may recover the outstanding amount in any other manner provided by this Act; or~~
- ~~(b) — has been paid after the issue of an order under this section and before the levying of distress, any costs and expenses incurred by the Commissioner before payment of the tax shall be deemed to be a debt due and payable to the Government by the person in respect of whom the order was issued and may be recovered by the Commissioner as tax under this Act.~~

~~(2) — For the purpose of levying distress under this section, the authorised officer may, in addition to employing such~~

~~servants or agents as he may consider necessary, require a police officer to be present while distress is being levied, and any police officer so required shall comply with the requirement.~~

~~(3) — Any property distrained under this section shall be kept for ten days, either at the premises at which distress was levied or at such other place as the authorised officer may consider appropriate, at the cost of the person from whom the tax is recoverable:~~

~~Provided that where goods are of a perishable nature, the Commissioner may direct that the goods shall be sold forthwith, either by public auction or by private treaty, and that the proceeds of sale shall be retained and dealt with as if they were the goods.~~

~~(4) — If the person from whom tax is recoverable by distress does not pay the tax together with the costs of the distress within the period of ten days referred to in subsection (3), the goods or chattels distrained upon shall be sold by public auction for payment of the tax and costs and the proceeds of the sale shall be applied first towards the cost of taking, keeping and selling the goods and chattels distrained upon and then towards the tax, and any remaining proceeds shall be paid to the person from whom the goods were distrained.~~

owing money to the registered person.
Tax Procedures
Act 2015

~~25.(1) — Where any sum by way of tax is due and payable by a registered person, the Commissioner may, by notice in writing, require —~~

- ~~(a) — any person from whom any money is due or accruing or may become due to the registered person;~~
- ~~(b) — any person who holds or may subsequently hold money for or on account of the registered person;~~
- ~~(c) — any person who holds or may subsequently hold money on account of some other person for payment to the registered person; or~~
- ~~(d) — any person having authority from some other person to pay money to the registered person,~~

~~to pay to the Commissioner that money or such sum as is sufficient to pay the tax that is due and payable.~~

~~(2) — Where a person required under subsection (1) to pay money to the Commissioner claims to be or to have become~~ unable to do so by reason of lack of moneys held by, or due from him, he shall within seven working days notify the Commissioner accordingly, in writing, stating the reasons for his inability to do so.

(3) — Unless the Commissioner is satisfied with the reasons given under subsection (2) —

(a) — sufficient moneys for the payment of the tax specified in the notice shall be presumed to be held by such person for, or due from him to, the registered person in respect of whom the notice is given under subsection (1); and

(b) — in any proceedings for the collection or recovery of that tax, such person shall be stopped from asserting the lack of those moneys.

(4) — The Commissioner may, by notice in writing, at any time require any person to furnish him within a reasonable time, not being less than thirty days from the date of service of the notice, with a return showing any moneys which may be held by that person for, or due by him to, the registered person from whom tax is due.

(5) — All payments made in accordance with a notice under this section shall be deemed to be made on behalf of the registered person and of all other persons concerned, and shall constitute a good and sufficient discharge of the liability of such person to the registered person, or any other person.

(6) — Any person who, without lawful authority or excuse —

(a) — fails to comply with the requirement of any notice given to him under subsection (1) or (4); or

(b) — discharges any liability to a registered person in disregard of such notice, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand shillings, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to both, and shall also be personally liable to pay to the Commissioner the amount of any liability so discharged.

25A. (1) — Government Ministries, Departments and Agencies or any other person appointed by the Commissioner shall, on purchasing taxable supplies, withhold six percent of the taxable

Act 2015

26.(1) ~~Where the Commissioner has reasonable cause to believe that a person —~~

~~(a) — has made taxable supplies on which tax has not been charged; or~~

~~(b) — has collected tax which has not been accounted for; and~~

~~(c) — is likely to frustrate the recovery of tax if information on the Commissioner's suspicion under this subsection is disclosed to him,~~

~~the Commissioner may make an ex parte application to the High Court, in this section referred to as "the Court", and the Court may issue an order to any person or institution holding funds belonging to the person, prohibiting the transfer, withdrawal or disposal of, or any other dealings involving such funds.~~

~~(2) — An order under subsection (1) shall be valid for thirty days and may be extended by the Court on application by the Commissioner.~~

~~(4) — A person whose funds are the subject of an order under this section may, within fifteen days of being served with the order, apply to the Court to discharge or vary the order or dismiss the application under subsection (2).~~

~~(5) — Where the Court has issued an order under this section, the Commissioner shall, within thirty days of the order, determine the tax due and payable, issue a notice of assessment to that person and commence recovery of such tax in accordance with the provisions of this Act.~~

~~(6) — Upon issuance of a notice of assessment under subsection (4), the order shall automatically expire unless extended by the Court upon application by the Commissioner under subsection (2).~~

~~(7) — A person served with an order under this section who, in any way, interferes with the funds to which the order relates commits an offence.~~

~~(8) — A person who preserves funds or any account pursuant to a Court order issued under this section, shall for all purposes, be deemed to have acted within the authority thereof and such person and all other persons concerned shall be indemnified in respect of the actions taken in connection therewith, against all proceedings, civil or criminal and all process, judicial or extrajudicial, notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any written law, contract or agreement.~~

~~27.(1) — Where a person being the owner of land or buildings on land situated in Kenya fails to pay a tax due and payable under this Act, the Commissioner may by notice in writing inform that person of his intention to apply to the Chief Land Registrar for the land or buildings to be the subject of security for tax of an amount specified in the notice.~~

PART VIII-REFUND OF TAX

Refund of tax paid
in error

30. Where, in respect of any supply, tax has been paid in error, the Commissioner shall, except as otherwise provided by the regulations, refund such tax:

Provided that no refund shall be made under this section unless a claim in respect thereof is lodged within twelve months from the date the tax became due and payable under section 19.

Refund of tax on bad debts.

31.(1) Where a registered person has made a supply and has accounted for and paid tax on that supply but has not received any payment from the person liable to pay the tax, he may, after a period of three years from the date of that supply or where that person has become legally insolvent, apply to the Commissioner for a refund of the tax involved and subject to the regulations, the Commissioner may refund the tax:

Provided that no application for a refund shall be made under this section after the expiry of five years from the date of the supply.

(2) Where the tax refunded under subsection is subsequently recovered from the recipient of the supply, the registered person shall refund the tax to the Commissioner within thirty days of the date of the recovery.

(3) If payment is not made within the time specified under subsection (2), an interest of two per cent per month or part thereof of the tax refunded shall forthwith be due and payable:

Provided that the interest payable shall not exceed one hundred per cent of the refunded amount.

~~32.(1) — Where any tax has been refunded in error, the person to whom the refund has been erroneously made shall, on demand by the Commissioner, pay the amount erroneously refunded.~~

Erroneous refund of tax.

Tax Procedures Act 2015

~~(2) — Where a demand has been made for any amount of tax under subsection (1), that amount shall be deemed to be due from the person liable to pay the tax on the date upon which the demand is served upon him and if payment is not made within thirty days of the date of service, an interest of two percent per month or part thereof of such unpaid amount shall forthwith be due and payable:~~

~~Provided that the interest chargeable under this subsection shall not exceed one hundred percent of the tax originally due.~~

~~(3) — The Commissioner may, upon application by a person from whom any interest is due under subsection (2), grant remission of the whole or part of the interest due, if satisfied that such remission is justified, and shall make quarterly reports to the Cabinet Secretary of all the remissions granted under this subsection:~~

~~Provided that where the amount of interest exceeds one million five hundred thousand shillings, remission shall be subject to the prior written approval of the Cabinet Secretary.~~

~~(4) — Upon receipt of an application under subsection (3), the Commissioner shall, where the applicant has paid the principal tax in full, suspend the charging of the interest pending the determination of the application.~~

~~(5) — Where remission under subsection (3) is not granted, or is granted in respect of only part of the interest, the balance of the interest shall become due and payable within ninety days of the determination of the application.~~

~~(6) — Where the balance of the interest payable under subsection (5) remains unpaid after the expiry of the specified period, a surcharge at the rate of two percent per month or part thereof shall forthwith be due and payable.~~

33. Repealed. Any person who fraudulently makes a claim for a refund of tax shall be liable to pay a penalty of an amount equal to two times the amount of claim.

Finance Act 2016

PART IX- REGISTRATION AND DEREGISTRATION

Application for registration

34.(1) A person who in the course of a business –

- (a) has made taxable supplies or expects to make taxable supplies, the value of which is five million shillings or more in any period of twelve months; or
- (b) is about to commence making taxable supplies the value of which is reasonably expected to exceed five million shillings in any period of twelve months, shall be liable for registration under this Act and shall, within thirty days of becoming so liable, apply to the Commissioner for registration in the prescribed form.

(2) In determining whether a person exceeds the registration threshold for a period, the value of the following taxable supplies shall be excluded–

- (a) a taxable supply of a capital asset of the person; and
- (b) a taxable supply made solely as a consequence of the person selling the whole or a part of the person's business or permanently ceasing to carry on the person's business.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a person who makes or intends to make taxable supplies may apply, in the prescribed form, to the Commissioner for voluntary registration.

(4) The Commissioner shall register a person who has applied for voluntary registration under subsection (3) if satisfied that -

- (a) the person is making, or shall make taxable supplies;
- (b) the person has a fixed place from which the person's business is conducted;
- (c) if the person has commenced carrying on a business, the person-
 - (i) has kept proper records of its business; and

- (ii) has complied with its obligations under other revenue laws; and
- (d) there are reasonable grounds to believe that the person shall keep proper records and file regular and reliable tax returns.
- (5) The Commissioner shall issue a registered person with a tax registration certificate in the prescribed form.
- (6) If the Commissioner is satisfied that a person eligible to apply for registration has not done so within the time limit specified in subsection (1), the Commissioner shall register the person.
- (7) The registration of a person under subsection (1) or (6) shall take effect from the beginning of the first tax period after the person is required to apply for registration, or such later period as may be specified in the person's tax registration certificate.
- (8) The registration of a person under subsection (4) shall take effect from the date specified in the person's tax registration certificate.
- (9) The Cabinet Secretary may, in regulations, provide for the registration of a group of companies as one registered person for the purposes of the Act.

35.(1) A registered person shall display in a conspicuous place –

Registered person to display certificate.

- (a) the tax registration certificate at the principal place at which the person carries on business; and
- (b) a copy of the certificate at every other place at which the person carries on business.

(2) A registered person shall notify the Commissioner, in writing, of any change in the name (including the business name), address, place of business, or nature of the business of the person within twenty-one days of the change.

36.(1) A registered person who ceases to make taxable supplies shall apply in writing to the Commissioner, for the cancellation of the person's registration, within thirty days of the date on which the person ceases to make taxable supplies.

Cancellation of registration.

(2) A registered person who continues to make taxable supplies whose annual value does not exceed the registration threshold may apply in writing to the Commissioner, for cancellation of the person's registration.

(3) The Commissioner shall, by notice in writing, cancel the registration of a person if –

- (a) the person has applied for cancellation under subsection (1) and the Commissioner is satisfied that the person has ceased to make taxable supplies; or
- (b) the person has not applied for cancellation but the Commissioner is satisfied that the person has ceased to make taxable supplies and is not otherwise required to be registered.

(4) Where a person applies for cancellation of registration under subsection (2) and the Commissioner is satisfied that the person is not required to be registered –

- (a) the Commissioner shall, if the person has been registered for a period of more than twelve months, by notice in writing, cancel the registration; or
- (b) the Commissioner may, if the person has been registered for a period of twelve months or less, by notice in writing, cancel the registration.

(5) The Commissioner may, by notice in writing, cancel the registration of a person who is no longer required to be registered, if the Commissioner is satisfied that the person has not–

- (a) kept proper tax records;
- (b) furnished regular and reliable returns; or
- (c) complied with obligations under other revenue laws, and there are reasonable grounds to believe that the person will not keep proper records or furnish regular and reliable returns.

(6) The cancellation of a person's registration shall take effect from the date specified in the notice of cancellation.

(7) Where a person's registration is cancelled under this section, the person shall—

- (a) immediately cease to hold out that the person is a registered person, including on any documentation used by the person;
- (b) submit a final return and pay all tax due, including the tax due under subsection (9), within fifteen days after the date of cancellation of the person's registration.

(8) Notwithstanding the cancellation of registration of a person under this section, the person shall be liable for any act done or omitted to be done while registered.

(9) A person whose registration is cancelled shall be deemed to have made a taxable supply of any trading stock on hand at the time the registration is cancelled if the person was allowed an input tax credit for the acquisition or import of the stock, or in respect of the acquisition or import of goods that have been subsumed into that stock.

Finance Act 2016

(10) The taxable supply under ~~subsection (1)~~ subsection (9) shall be deemed to have been made by the person immediately before the person's registration is cancelled and the person shall be liable for an amount of output tax in respect of the supply equal to the amount of the input tax credit allowed to the person on acquisition or import of the stock.

Offences relating to registration.

37. A person who —

- (a) fails to apply for registration as required under this Act;
- (b) applies for cancellation of registration when still required to be registered;
- (c) fails to apply for cancellation of registration as required under this Act; or
- (d) fails to comply with section 35 or 36(7)(a), commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both.

~~(c) — damages or impairs any duplicate tape or disc or other medium on which any information obtained~~

~~from a tax computerised system is held or stored otherwise than with the permission of the Commissioner,~~

~~commits an offence.~~

~~(2) — A person convicted of an offence under subsection
(1) shall be liable, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to a fine not exceeding eight hundred thousand shillings, or to both.~~

PART XI-INVOICES, RECORDS, RETURNS AND ASSESSMENTS

42.(1) Subject to subsection (2), a registered person who makes a taxable supply shall, at the time of the supply furnish the purchaser with the tax invoice containing the prescribed details for the supply.

Tax invoice

(2) No invoice showing an amount which purports to be tax shall be issued on any supply-

- (a) which is not a taxable supply; or
- (b) by a person who is not registered.

(3) Any person who issues an invoice in contravention of this subsection commits an offence and any tax shown thereon shall become due and payable to the Commissioner within seven days of the date of the invoice.

(4) A registered person shall issue only one original tax invoice for a taxable supply, or one original credit note or debit note, but a copy clearly marked as such may be provided to a registered person who claims to have lost the original.

43.(1) Every registered person shall, for the purposes of this Act, keep in the course of his business, a full and true written record, whether in electronic form or otherwise, in English or Kiswahili of every transaction he makes and the record shall be kept in Kenya for a period of five years from the date of the last entry made therein.

Keeping of records

(2) The records to be kept under subsection (1) shall include -

- (a) copies of all tax invoices and simplified tax invoices issued in serial number order;
- (b) copies of all credit and debit notes issued, in chronological order;
- (c) purchase invoices, copies of customs entries, receipts for the payment of customs duty or tax, and credit and debit notes received, to be filed chronologically either by date of receipt or under each supplier's name;
- (d) details of the amounts of tax charged on each supply made or received and in relation to all services to which section 10 applies, sufficient written evidence to identify the supplier and the recipient, and to show the nature and quantity of services supplied, the time of supply, the place of supply, the consideration for the supply, and the extent to which the supply has been used by the recipient for a particular purpose;
- (e) tax account showing the totals of the output tax and the input tax in each period and a net total of the tax payable or the excess tax carried forward, as the case may be, at the end of each period;
- (f) copies of stock records kept periodically as the Commissioner may determine;
- (g) details of each supply of goods and services from the business premises, unless such details are available at the time of supply on invoices issued at, or before, that time; and
- (h) such other accounts or records as may be specified, in writing, by the Commissioner.

(3) Every person required under subsection (1) to keep records shall, at all reasonable times, avail the records to an authorised officer for inspection and shall give the officer every facility necessary to inspect the records.

(4) For the purposes of this section, the Commissioner may, in accordance with the regulations, require any person to use an electronic tax register, of such type and description as may be prescribed, for the purpose of accessing information regarding any matter or transaction which may affect the tax liability of the person.

(5) A person who contravenes any of the provisions of this section commits an offence.

Submission of returns.

44.(1) Every registered person shall submit a return, in the prescribed form and manner, in respect of each tax period not later than the twentieth day after the end of that period.

Finance Act 2018

~~(2) A registered person may, in writing, apply to the Commissioner for an extension of time to submit a return.~~

~~(3) An application under subsection (2) shall be made before the due date for submission of the return.~~

~~(4) The Commissioner may, upon satisfaction that there is reasonable cause, grant an application under subsection (2) and shall serve notice of the decision on the applicant.~~

~~(5) A person who fails to submit a return as required under this section shall be liable to a penalty of ten thousand shillings or five percent of the amount of tax payable under the return, whichever is higher.~~

Assessment of tax.

Tax Procedures
Act 2015

45.(1) For the purposes of this Act, a registered person who has submitted a return shall be treated as having made an assessment of the amount of tax payable for the tax period to which the return relates, being the amount set out in the return.

~~(2) If a registered person fails to—~~

~~(a) submit a return;~~

~~(b) keep proper books of accounts, records or documents; or~~

~~(c) apply for registration as a registered person,~~

~~as required under this Act, the Commissioner may, based on such evidence as may be available, make an assessment of the tax payable (including interest and any penalty where applicable) by the registered person.~~

~~(3) An assessment under subsection (2) shall not alter the due date for the payment of the tax as determined under the Act.~~

~~(4) — The Commissioner shall cause a notice of the assessment under subsection (2) to be served on the person assessed, and the notice shall state the amount of tax payable and shall inform the person assessed of his rights under this Act.~~

~~(5) — Subject to subsection (6), an assessment made under subsection (2) shall not be made after five years immediately following the last date of the tax period in which the liability to pay tax arose.~~

~~(6) — The time limit under subsection (5) shall not apply in the case of gross or wilful neglect, evasion or fraud.~~

~~46.(1) — Subject to this section, the Commissioner may amend an assessment by making such alterations or additions to the assessment as he considers necessary to ensure that a registered person is liable for the correct amount of tax in respect of the tax period to which the assessment relates and shall serve notice of the amendment on the registered person.~~

Amendment of assessment.

Tax Procedures Act
2015

~~(2) — A registered person who has made a self-assessment pursuant to section 45 may apply to the Commissioner, within the period specified in subsection (4)(b), to make an amendment to the assessment.~~

~~(3) — If an application has been made under subsection (2), the Commissioner may —~~

~~(a) — amend the self-assessment; or~~

~~(b) — refuse the application,~~

~~and the Commissioner shall serve the registered person with a notice of the decision on the application within thirty days of the receipt of application.~~

~~(4) — The amendment of an assessment under subsection (1) may be made —~~

~~(a) — in the case of gross or wilful neglect, evasion or fraud by or on behalf of the registered person, at any time; or~~

~~(b) — in any other case, within five years of —~~

~~(i) — a self-assessment, the date that the registered person submitted the return;~~

or

- (ii) ~~any other assessment, the date the Commissioner served notice of the assessment,~~ and the Commissioner shall serve the registered person with a notice of an amended assessment within thirty days.

~~(5) Subject to subsection (6), if an assessment has been amended under subsection (1), the Commissioner may further amend the original assessment within the later of—~~

- ~~(a) five years after the Commissioner served notice of the original assessment on the registered person or, in the case of a self-assessment, five years after the registered person submitted the return treated as the original assessment; or~~

- ~~(b) one year after the Commissioner served notice of the amended assessment on the registered person.~~

~~(6) In any case to which subsection (5)(b) applies, the Commissioner shall be limited to amending the alterations or additions made in the amended assessment to the original assessment.~~

~~(7) In this Part, “assessment” includes a self-assessment under section 45.~~

PART XII-ENFORCEMENT

Commissioner
may require security.

Tax Procedures
Act 2015

~~47.(1) The Commissioner may, in order to secure the payment by any person of any tax, or other sum payable under this Act, require the person concerned to furnish security thereof in such manner as may be prescribed and for such amount as the Commissioner considers reasonable having regard to the circumstances.~~

~~(2) Any person who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with a requirement of the Commissioner under this section within such reasonable time as the Commissioner may allow commits an offence.~~

Production of records.
Tax Procedures
Act 2015

~~48.(1) For the purposes of obtaining full information, whether on a data storage device or otherwise, in respect of the tax liability of any person or class of persons, or for any other purposes,~~

~~the Commissioner or an authorised officer may require any person, by notice in writing, to—~~

- ~~(a) — produce for examination, at such time and place as may be specified in the notice, any records, books of account, statements of assets and liabilities or other documents that are in the person's custody or under the person's control relating to the tax liability of any person;~~
- ~~(b) — furnish such information relating to the tax liability of any person in the manner specified in the notice;~~
- ~~(c) — attend, at such time and place as may be specified in the notice, for the purpose of giving evidence in respect of any matter or transaction appearing to be relevant to tax liability of any person;~~

~~Provided that where the person required to produce any records, books of account, statements of assets and liabilities or other documents for examination under this section is a bank or financial institution—~~

- ~~(i) — the records, books of account, statements of assets and liabilities or other documents shall not, in the course of the examination, be removed from the premises of the bank or financial institution or other premises at which they are produced;~~
- ~~(ii) — the Commissioner or an authorised officer carrying out the examination may make copies of such records, books of account, statements of assets and liabilities or other documents for purposes of any report relating to the examination; and~~
- ~~(iii) — all information obtained in the course of the examination shall be treated as confidential and shall be used solely for the purposes of the Act.~~

~~(2) — A person who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with any requirement made under subsection (1) commits an offence and shall be liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand shillings, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to both.~~

~~(3) — The Commissioner may require that the information or evidence referred to in subsection (1) be—~~

- ~~(a) — given on oath, verbally or in writing, and, for that purpose, the Commissioner may administer the oath; or~~
- ~~(b) — verified by statutory declaration or in any other manner.~~
- ~~(4) — This section shall have effect notwithstanding—~~
- ~~(a) — any law relating to privilege or the public interest with respect to the giving of information or the production of any accounts, documents, or records (including in electronic format); or~~
- ~~(b) — any contractual duty of confidentiality.~~

~~49.(1) — The Commissioner or an authorised officer may, at all reasonable times enter, with warrant, any premises upon which any person carries on business, or in which he has reasonable grounds to believe that a person is carrying on business, in order to ascertain whether this Act is being complied with, whether on the part of the occupier of the premises or any other person, and on entry he may—~~

Power of inspection etc.

Tax Procedures Act 2015

- ~~(a) — require the production of, and may examine, make and take copies of, any record, book, account or other document, whether on a data storage device or otherwise, kept on the premises;~~
- ~~(b) — take possession of and remove any record, book, account or other document, whether on a data storage device or otherwise (including the data), which he has reasonable grounds to suspect to be, or to contain, evidence of the commission of any offence under this Act;~~
- ~~(c) — require the occupier of the premises or any person employed therein to answer questions relating to any record, book, account or other document, whether on a data storage device or otherwise, or to any entry therein, and to render such explanation and give any information relating to the business concerned that the authorised officer may require for the exercise of his functions under this Act;~~
- ~~(d) — require any safe, container, envelope or other receptacle in the establishment to be opened;~~

~~(e) — at the risk and expense of the occupier of the premises, open and examine any package found therein;~~

~~(f) — take and retain without payment such reasonable samples of any goods as he may think necessary for the exercise of his functions under this Act.~~

~~(2) — Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Commissioner or an authorized officer may, prior to obtaining a warrant, secure the premises for purpose of ascertaining whether this Act is being complied with.~~

~~(3) — Where an authorised officer enters any premises in exercise of the powers conferred by subsection (1), he may take with him such persons as he considers necessary for the carrying out of his functions under this Act.~~

~~(4) — An authorised officer shall not be entitled to enter or remain on any premises or place if, upon request by the owner or lawful occupier, the officer is unable to produce the Commissioner's written authorisation permitting the officer to exercise the powers conferred by subsection (1).~~

~~(5) — The owner or lawful occupier of the premises to which an exercise of power under subsection (1) relates shall provide all reasonable facilities and assistance to the Commissioner or authorised officer in the exercise of the power.~~

~~(6) — A person whose accounts, documents, or records have been seized under subsection (1) may examine them and make copies, at the person's expense, during office hours.~~

~~(7) — A person whose data storage device has been seized under subsection (1) may have access to the device during office hours on such terms and conditions as the Commissioner or authorized officer may specify.~~

~~(8) — The Commissioner or authorised officer shall sign for all accounts, documents, records or data storage devices removed and retained under this section and return them to the owner within fourteen days of the conclusion of the examination to which they relate and all related proceedings:~~

~~Provided that the Commissioner shall not retain the accounts, documents, records or data storage devices for a period longer than six months unless the accounts, documents, records or data~~

~~storage devices are required for the purposes of any proceedings under this Act or any other written law.~~

~~(9) — This section shall have effect despite—~~

~~(a) — any law relating to privilege or the public interest with respect to access to premises, or the production of any property, accounts, documents, or records (including in electronic format); or~~

~~(b) — any contractual duty of confidentiality.~~

~~(10) — Any person who—~~

~~(a) — resists, hinders or obstructs, or attempts to resist, hinder or obstruct, an authorised officer acting under this section, or fails to comply with subsection (5); or~~

~~(b) — fails to comply fully with any requirement made under this section; or~~

~~(c) — makes any statement in response to any such requirement, knowing it to be false or incomplete in any material particular, or not having reason to believe that it is true or complete in all material respects; or~~

~~(d) — procures or attempts to procure, by any means, any other person to act as aforesaid,~~

~~commits an offence.~~

~~(11) — The Commissioner shall allow the registered person or his authorised representative access to documents or equipment during the audit or examination and the Commissioner shall return the documents or equipment after completing such audit or examination.~~

~~(12) — Any audit or examination of the records of a registered person pursuant to this section shall be finalized within six months from the date it commences.~~

~~(13) — In the event that the audit or examination is not completed within six months as contemplated in subsection (12), an authorized officer may request the Commissioner to extend the period for conducting the audit or examination and, if such~~

~~extension is granted, the authorised person shall inform the registered person accordingly.~~

~~(14) — Where an audit or examination is not concluded upon expiry of six months from the date of commencement of the audit or examination, a registered person or his or her authorised representative shall, upon request, be issued with an interim certificate indicating the progress made during the audit or examination.~~

PART XIII-OBJECTIONS

Objections.

Tax Procedures
Act 2015

~~50.(1) — A person who disputes an assessment made by the Commissioner under section 45 or 46 may, by notice in writing to the Commissioner, object to the assessment.~~

~~(2) — A notice given under subsection (1) shall not be a valid notice of objection unless—~~

~~(a) — it states precisely the grounds of objection to the assessment; and~~

~~(b) — it is received by the Commissioner within thirty days after the date of service of the notice of assessment:~~

~~Provided that if the Commissioner is satisfied that owing to absence from Kenya, sickness or other reasonable cause, the person objecting to the assessment was prevented from giving the notice within that period and there has been no unreasonable delay on his part, the Commissioner may, upon application by the person objecting, admit the notice after the expiry of that period and the admitted notice shall be a valid notice of objection.~~

~~(3) — Where notice of an objection has been received under this section, the Commissioner shall, within thirty days—~~

~~(a) — amend the assessment in accordance with the objection;~~

~~(b) — amend the assessment in the light of the objection according to the best of his judgment; or~~

~~(c) — refuse to amend the assessment.~~

~~(4) — Where the Commissioner, in respect of an objection under this section, either—~~

- (a) — agrees to amend the assessment in accordance with the objection; or
- (b) — proposes to amend the assessment in the light of the objection and the person objecting agrees with the Commissioner on the proposed amendment;

the assessment shall be amended accordingly and the Commissioner shall, within fifteen days, cause a notice setting out the amendment and the amount of tax payable to be served on that person.

(5) — Where the Commissioner, upon consideration of an objection under this section —

- (a) — proposes to amend the assessment in the light of the objection and the person objecting does not agree with the Commissioner as to the proposed amendment, the assessment shall be amended as proposed by the Commissioner who shall, within fifteen days, cause a notice setting out the amendment and the amount of the tax payable to be served on that person; or
- (b) — refuses to amend the assessment, he shall, within fifteen days, cause a notice confirming the assessment to be served on that person.

(6) — A person's objection to an amended assessment under this section shall be limited to the alterations or additions made in it.

(7) — Where the Commissioner fails to communicate the decision on a person's objection within sixty days of the receipt of the objection, the Commissioner shall be deemed to have agreed to amend the assessment in accordance with the objection.

PART XIV-FORFEITURE AND SEIZURE

51.(1) — Any taxable supplies found to have been sold by a registered person without payment of tax shall be liable to forfeiture:

Power to seize goods.

Tax Procedures Act 2015

Provided that the Commissioner may permit the goods liable to forfeiture to be delivered to the person making the claim after the tax due on the goods is paid.

~~(2) — The Commissioner may seize any goods liable to forfeiture if he has reasonable grounds to believe that the tax due and payable in respect of the supply or importation of the goods has not been, or is likely not be, paid.~~

~~(3) — Goods seized under subsection (2) shall be stored in a place approved by the Commissioner.~~

~~(4) — Immediately after the seizure of the goods, a written statement shall be obtained from the owner of the goods or the person who has custody or control stating the quantity and quality of the goods.~~

~~(5) — Where goods have been seized under subsection (2), the Commissioner shall, within ten days after the seizure, serve on the owner of the goods or the person who had custody or control of the goods immediately before seizure, a notice in writing—~~

~~(a) — identifying the goods;~~

~~(b) — stating that the goods have been seized under this section and the reason for seizure; and~~

~~(c) — setting out the terms for the release or disposal of the goods.~~

~~(6) — The Commissioner shall not be required to serve a notice under subsection (5) if, after making reasonable enquiries, the Commissioner does not have sufficient information to identify the person on whom the notice should be served.~~

~~(7) — Where subsection (6) applies, the Commissioner may serve a notice under subsection (5) on a person claiming the goods:~~

~~Provided a notice under this subsection shall only be given in favour of a person where that person has given sufficient information to enable the notice to be served.~~

~~(8) — The Commissioner may authorise any goods seized under subsection (2) to be delivered to the person on whom a notice under subsection (5) has been served where that person has paid, or has given security for the payment of, the tax due and payable or that will become due and payable in respect of the goods.~~

~~(9) — Where subsection (8) does not apply, the Commissioner shall detain the goods seized under subsection (1) —~~

~~(a) — in the case of perishable goods, for a period that the Commissioner considers reasonable having regard to the condition of the goods; or~~

~~(b) — in any other case —~~

~~(i) — twenty days after the seizure of the goods; or~~

~~(ii) — twenty days after the due date for payment of the tax,~~

~~whichever is earlier.~~

~~(10) — Where the detention period under subsection (9) has expired, the Commissioner may sell the goods in the manner specified in section 24(4) and apply the proceeds of sale as set out in that section.~~

PART XV—SETTLEMENT OF CASES AND RULINGS BY THE COMMISSIONER

Power of the Commissioner to compound offences by agreement.

Tax Procedures Act 2015

~~52.(1) — The Commissioner may, where he is satisfied that a person has committed an offence under this Act in respect of which a penalty of a fine is provided, or in respect of which anything is liable to forfeiture, compound the offence and may order that person to pay such sum of money, not exceeding the amount of the fine to which he would have been liable if he had been prosecuted and convicted for the offence, as he may think fit and he may order anything liable to forfeiture in connection therewith to be condemned:~~

~~Provided that the Commissioner shall not exercise his powers under this section unless the person admits in writing that he has committed the offence and requests the Commissioner to deal with the offence under this section.~~

~~(2) — For the purposes of subsection (1), the Commissioner shall constitute a committee of not less than three officers to consider applications for compounding of offences.~~

~~(3) — The order referred to in subsection (1) shall—~~

~~(a) be in writing under the hand of the Commissioner and the offender, and witnessed by an officer;~~

- (b) ~~specify the name of the offender, the offence committed, the sum of money ordered by the Commissioner to be paid, and the date or dates on which payment is to be made;~~
- (c) ~~have a copy of the written admission referred to in subsection (2) attached;~~
- (d) ~~be served on the offender;~~
- (e) ~~be final and not be subject to appeal; and~~
- (f) ~~on production in any court, be treated as proof of the conviction of the offender for the offence specified, and may be enforced in the same manner as a decree of a court for the payment of the amount stated therein.~~

(4) ~~If the Commissioner compounds an offence under this section, the offender shall not be liable for prosecution or penalty in respect of same act or omission, the subject of the compounded offence except with express consent of the Attorney General.~~

53.(1) ~~The Commissioner may make a public ruling in accordance with section 54 setting out the Commissioner's interpretation on the application of this Act.~~

Binding public rulings.

Tax Procedures Act 2015

(2) ~~A public ruling made in accordance with section 54 shall be binding on the Commissioner until withdrawn, but shall not be binding on the tax payer.~~

54.(1) ~~A public ruling by the Commissioner under section 53 shall be by notice in at least two daily newspapers of national circulation.~~

Making a public ruling.

Tax Procedures Act 2015

(2) ~~A public ruling shall bear a heading specifying the subject matter of the ruling and an identification number.~~

(3) ~~A public ruling shall have effect from the date specified in the ruling or where no date is specified, from the date of its publication.~~

55.(1) ~~The Commissioner may withdraw a public ruling, in whole or part, by publishing notice of the withdrawal in at least two daily newspapers of national circulation.~~

Withdrawal of a public ruling.
Tax Procedures Act 2015

~~(2) — If, subsequent to a public ruling, legislation is passed, or the Commissioner makes another public ruling that is inconsistent with an existing public ruling, the existing public ruling shall be treated as withdrawn to the extent of the inconsistency.~~

~~(3) — The withdrawal of a public ruling, in whole or part, shall have effect —~~

~~(a) — where subsection (1) applies, from the date specified in the notice of withdrawal and if no date is specified, from the date the notice of withdrawal is published in at least two daily newspapers of national circulation; or~~

~~(b) — where subsection (2) applies, from the effective date of the legislation or of the new public ruling.~~

~~(4) — A public ruling that has been withdrawn, in whole or in part —~~

~~(a) — shall continue to apply to a transaction commenced before the public ruling was withdrawn; and~~

~~(b) — shall not apply to a transaction commenced after the ruling was withdrawn to the extent of the withdrawal.~~

Binding private rulings.
Tax Procedures
Act 2015

~~56.(1) — Subject to section 57, the Commissioner shall, upon application in writing by a registered person, issue to that person a private ruling setting out the Commissioner's position regarding the application of this Act to a transaction entered into, or proposed to be entered into, by the registered person.~~

~~(2) — If the taxpayer has made a full and true disclosure of all aspects of the transaction relevant to the making of a private ruling and the transaction has proceeded in all material respects as described in the registered person's application for the ruling, the ruling shall be binding on the Commissioner in relation to the registered person.~~

~~(3) — A private ruling shall not be binding on the registered person to whom it is issued.~~

~~(4) — If a private ruling is inconsistent with an existing public ruling, the private ruling shall have priority to the extent of the inconsistency.~~

~~57.(1) The Commissioner may refuse an application for a private ruling if—~~

Refusing an application for a private ruling.

- ~~(a) the Commissioner has already decided the matter that is the subject of the application in a tax assessment;~~
- ~~(b) the Commissioner is of the opinion that an existing public ruling adequately covers the matter that is the subject of the application;~~
- ~~(c) the application relates to a matter that is the subject of a tax audit or an objection;~~
- ~~(d) the application is frivolous or vexatious;~~
- ~~(e) the arrangement to which the application relates has not been carried out and there are reasonable grounds to believe that it shall not be carried out;~~
- ~~(f) the applicant has not provided the Commissioner with sufficient information to make a private ruling; or~~
- ~~(g) in the opinion of the Commissioner, it would be unreasonable to comply with the application, having regard to the resources needed to comply and any other matters the Commissioner considers relevant.~~

Tax Procedures Act 2015

~~(2) The Commissioner shall serve the applicant with a written notice of refusal to make a private ruling under this section.~~

~~58.(1) The Commissioner shall make a private ruling by serving written notice of the ruling on the applicant.~~

Making a private ruling.

~~(2) The Commissioner may make a private ruling on the basis of assumptions about a future event or other matter as considered appropriate.~~

Tax Procedures Act 2015

~~(3) A private ruling shall set out the matter ruled on, identifying—~~

- ~~(a) the registered person;~~

- ~~(b) — the specific section relevant to the ruling;~~
 - ~~(c) — the tax period to which the ruling applies;~~
 - ~~(d) — the arrangement to which the ruling relates; and~~
 - ~~(e) — any assumptions on which the ruling is based.~~
- ~~(4) — A private ruling shall be effective from date the applicant is served with notice of the ruling and shall remain in force for the period specified in the ruling.~~

Withdrawal of a private ruling.

Tax Procedures Act 2015

59. ~~(1) — The Commissioner may, for reasonable cause, withdraw a private ruling, in whole or part, by written notice served on the applicant.~~

~~(2) — If legislation is made, or the Commissioner publishes a public ruling that is inconsistent with a private ruling, the private ruling shall be treated as withdrawn to the extent of the inconsistency.~~

~~(3) — The withdrawal of a private ruling, in whole or in part, shall have effect —~~

- ~~(a) — where subsection (1) applies, from the date specified in the notice of withdrawal; or~~
 - ~~(b) — where subsection (2) applies, from the date of application of the inconsistent legislation or public ruling.~~
- ~~(4) — A private ruling which has been withdrawn shall —~~
- ~~(a) — continue to apply to a transaction commenced before the ruling was withdrawn; and~~
 - ~~(b) — not apply to a transaction commenced after the ruling was withdrawn to the extent that the ruling is withdrawn.~~

PART XVI-OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

Offences by members and staff of the Authority.
Tax Procedures Act 2015

60. ~~A member of the Authority, staff or other person having any duty to perform pursuant to any written law relating to any matter under this Act —~~

- (a) — makes, in any record, return or other document which they are required to keep or make, an entry which they know or have reasonable cause to believe to be false, or do not believe to be true;
- (b) — wilfully refuses to do anything which they know or have reasonable cause to believe is required to be done by them under this Act or other written law;
- (c) — interferes with any other person or process under this Act, so as to defeat the provisions or requirements of this Act;
- (d) — where required under this Act or any other law to do anything to give effect to the provisions of this Act, fails to do such thing;
- (e) — without reasonable cause does or omit to do anything in breach of his or her duty under this Act;
- (f) — wilfully contravenes the provision of this Act to give undue advantage or favour to another person;
- (g) — fails to prevent or report to the Authority or any other relevant authority, the commission of an offence committed under this Act, commits an offence and is liable on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one million five hundred thousand shillings, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to both.

61.(1) — Where any offence under this Act is committed by an employee or agent, the person by whom that employee or agent is employed shall also be culpable for that offence unless he or she proves to the satisfaction of the court that he or she did not know, and could not reasonably be expected to know, that the act or omission constituting the offence was taking place and that he or she took all reasonable steps to ensure that the offence was not committed.

(2) — Where an offence under this Act has been committed by a body corporate, every person who, at the time of the commission of the offence, was a director, general manager, secretary, or other similar officer of the body corporate, or was acting or purporting to act in that capacity, shall also be culpable for that offence, unless he or she proves that the offence was Liability of employers and officers of companies.

Tax Procedures Act 2015

~~committed without his or her consent or knowledge and that he or she exercised all the diligence to prevent the commission of the offence that he or she ought to have exercised having regard to the nature of his or her functions in that capacity and in all circumstances.~~

Burden of proof

62. In any civil proceedings under this Act, the burden of proving that any tax has been paid or that any goods or services are exempt from payment of tax shall lie on the person liable to pay the tax or claiming that the tax has been paid or that the goods or services are exempt from payment of tax.

General penalty

63. A person convicted of an offence under this Act for which no other penalty is provided shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one million shillings, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to both.

PART XVI-MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Effect on imposition or valuation of tax.

64.(1) If, after any agreement has been entered into for the supply of any taxable supply at a price that is expressly or implicitly inclusive of taxes or duties, and any alteration takes place in the amount of tax payable in respect of that supply before the tax becomes due, then, in the absence of express written provisions to the contrary between the parties to the agreement, and notwithstanding the provisions of any other written law, the agreement shall have effect as follows—

- (a) in the case of the alteration being a new or increased tax, the registered person may, after payment of the tax, whether directly or indirectly, add the difference caused by the alteration to the agreed price;
- (b) in the case of the alteration being the abolition or reduction of tax, the purchaser may, if the registered person has not, directly or indirectly, paid the tax or has paid the tax at a lower rate, deduct the difference caused by the alteration from the agreed price;
- (c) any refund or payment of increased tax resulting from the alteration not being finally adopted shall be adjusted between the parties to the agreement as the case may require.

(2) If, under any law relating to the control of prices or charges, a price is fixed, or any variation in price is prohibited or regulated, in relation to any taxable supply then, notwithstanding any provision of that law, where tax in relation to that supply is imposed or altered the price may be varied strictly in accordance with that imposition or variation when the registered person has, directly or indirectly, been affected by that imposition or alteration.

65. Subject to this Act, the East African Community Customs Management Act, 2004 and any rules made thereunder relating to customs generally, whether made before or after the commencement of this Act, shall have effect, with such exceptions and adaptations as may be prescribed, in relation to imported taxable goods, whether liable to any duty of customs or not, as if all such goods were liable to duties of customs and as if those duties included tax.

Application of East African Community Customs Management Act 2004.

66.(1) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, if the Commissioner is satisfied that –

Tax avoidance schemes.

- (a) a scheme has been entered into or carried out;
- (b) a person has obtained a tax benefit in connection with the scheme; and
- (c) having regard to the substance of the scheme, it would be concluded that a person, or one of the persons, who entered into or carried out the scheme did so for the sole or dominant purpose of enabling the person referred to in paragraph (b) to obtain a tax benefit, the Commissioner may determine the tax liability of the person who obtained the tax benefit as if the scheme had not been entered into or carried out.

(2) If a determination is made under subsection (1), the Commissioner shall issue an assessment giving effect to the determination.

(3) A determination under subsection (1) shall be made within five years from the last day of the tax period to which the determination relates.

(4) In this section –

“scheme” includes a course of action, and an agreement, arrangement, promise, plan, proposal, or undertaking, whether express or implied, and whether or not legally enforceable; and

“tax benefit” means –

- (a) a reduction in the liability of a person to pay tax;
- (b) an increase in the entitlement of a person to a deduction for input tax;
- (c) an entitlement to a refund;
- (d) a postponement of a liability for the payment of tax;
- (e) an acceleration of an entitlement to a deduction for input tax;
- (f) any other advantage arising because of a delay in payment of tax or an acceleration of the entitlement to a deduction for input tax;
- (g) anything that causes a taxable supply or taxable import not to be a taxable supply or taxable import, as the case may be; or
- (h) anything that gives rise to a deduction for input tax for an acquisition or import that is used or is intended to be used other than in making taxable supplies.

Regulations

67.(1) The Cabinet Secretary may make regulations for the better carrying of the provisions of this Act, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the regulations may –

- (a) prescribe conditions and procedures for the registration of registered persons;
- (b) provide for the submission of returns and the place at which returns are to be submitted and tax is to be paid;
- (c) prescribe the form of notices, returns or other forms required for the purposes of this Act;

- (d) prescribe offence and penalties thereto;
- (e) prescribe rules for particular types of supplies and in relation to input tax credits; or
- (f) prescribe any other thing required to be prescribed for the purposes of any provision of this Act.

(2) Regulations made under this section shall be tabled before the National Assembly for approval before they take effect.

68.(1) The Value Added Tax Act is repealed.

Repeal of Cap. 476
Transitional and savings provisions

(2) Notwithstanding the repeal of the Value Added Tax Act, the provisions of that Act shall remain in full force and effect for the purposes of the assessment and collection of any tax and the recovery of any penalty, payable under the Act and outstanding at the date upon which such repeal becomes effective.

(3) Any subsidiary legislation made under the repealed Act in force at the commencement of this Act shall remain in force, so far as it is not inconsistent with this Act, until subsidiary legislation with respect to the same matter is made under this Act.

(4) Where a remission of tax was granted under the repealed Act on any taxable goods or services, such remission shall continue to remain in force for a period of five years from the date of commencement of this Act.

(4A) For the avoidance of doubt and despite any other provision of this Act or other written law for the time being in force, the expression “remission of tax” in subsection (4) shall, in the case of an official aid-funded project, be deemed to include express provision in the agreement in respect of that project for the remission of tax on any taxable goods or services supplied for the implementation of the project, where the agreement was concluded before the commencement of this Act:

Finance Act 2014

Provided that a remission to which this subsection applies shall remain in force for a period of five years with effect from the commencement of this subsection.

(5) Where a tax was due to be paid or refunded under the repealed Act but was not so paid or refunded, it shall be paid or refunded as though it were a sum due under this Act”.

(6) Unless a contrary intention appears, the commencement of this Act shall not-

- (a) revive anything not in force or existing at the time at which the commencement take effect;
- (b) affect a penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of an offence committed against the repealed Act in force at the commencement of this Act;
- (c) affect an investigation, legal proceedings or remedy in respect of a right, privilege, obligations, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment, and any such investigation, legal proceedings or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced and such penalty forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if this Act has not been passed; or
- (d) affect the employment or appointment of any person to the services of the Authority subsisting at the commencement of this Act.
